Certification

I certify that I have given true, accurate and complete information on this form, including any continuation sheets, to the best of my knowledge. In the event confirmation is needed in connection with my work, I authorize educational institutions, associations, registration and licensing boards, and others to furnish whatever detail is available concerning my qualifications. I authorize investigation of all statements made in this application and understand that false information, false documentation, or failure to disclose relevant information may be grounds for rejection of my application, disciplinary action or dismissal if I am employed, and/or criminal action. I further understand that dismissal shall be mandatory if fraudulent information is given to meet position qualifications. (Authority: G.S. 126-30, G.S. 14-122.1).

I understand that Judicial Branch employees are not subject to the State Human Resources Act. Judicial Branch employees serve "at the pleasure" of their hiring authorities. This means that employment may be terminated with or without cause and/or advance notice by either the employer or the employee. However, termination by the employer may not occur due to discrimination prohibited by law.

I understand that applicants for employment opportunities with the Judicial Branch of Government may be subject to state and national criminal and/or sex offender registry background searches as a condition of employment. If the position for which I am applying involves the collection or accounting of funds, a credit check may be conducted prior to my employment.

The Judicial Branch participates in E-Verify, an internet-based system operated by the US Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in partnership with Social Security Administration (SSA) that allows employers to electronically verify the employment eligibility of newly hired employees. E-Verify works by electronically comparing the information on an employee's Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, with SSA and DHS records to verify the identity and employment eligibility of each newly hired employee. Applicants are urged to review information on the USCIS.gov website for E-Verify and Right to Work information.

If I am employed by an independent hiring authority within the Judicial Branch of Government, such as a judge, clerk of superior court, district attorney or public defender, I understand that I will serve at the pleasure of that official, that my employment may be terminated by that official without cause or notice, neither I nor the judicial official by whom I am employed is an employee of the Administrative Office of the Courts, and that the Administrative Office of the Courts has no authority over the hiring decisions or other employment practices of the judicial official by whom I am employed.
