NOTE TO PETITIONER: If this petition is granted, the clerk of superior court will send you a certified copy of the final order for your records at the address listed on Side One. If you move, you must notify the clerk in writing of your change of address in order to receive a certified copy. After the case is expunged, the clerk of superior court will have no record of the case and will be unable to provide you with any documentation of the case. This includes the expunction order; it will be destroyed with the case file.

The expunction of your case information from the records of the court and of other State and local government agencies does not guarantee that the information will be expunged from all other sources. Private companies routinely acquire copies of criminal records from State and local criminal justice agencies. Certain private entities are required to expunge your case information upon receiving notice of the expunction order, but there may be a delay between entry of the order of expunction and deletion from the entity's records. Further, that duty to expunge does not apply to all private entities. If a private entity distributes information about your expunged case, contact the private entity to determine which government agency was the source of the information, and then contact that government agency to determine whether or not the expunction order was received. If the private entity claims that the NCAOC was the source of the information, contact the NCAOC's Remote Public Access office at rpa@nccourts.org or (919) 890-2220 to investigate the entity's claim.
