JUDGMENT MODIFYING TIME PERIODS OF PROBATION AFTER TERMINATION OF APPEAL

G.S. 15A-1431, 15A-1443, 15A-1450

After entry of the original Judgment Suspending Sentence (AOC-CR-302 or AOC-CR-310 or AOC-CR-603 or AOC-CR-604), the defendant appealed to the  Superior Court Division  Appellate Division. Thereafter the appeal terminated as provided by law. After due notice and hearing, the Court finds as a fact, because of the time which elapsed between the date of the original Judgment and the date when the appeal terminated, it is necessary to amend certain dates and time periods specified in the original Judgment.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that the original Judgment be hereby modified to the extent set forth below and, except as specifically so modified, remains in full force and effect.

- The period during which the execution of the sentence in the original Judgment is suspended, and the period of the defendant's probation, shall begin as of the date of this modification.
- Any other time which, in the original Judgment, is designated by reference to "this date", "the date of this Judgment", "this Judgment" or the like, shall now be designated as the date of this modification.

3. The dates of the active term imposed as a condition of special probation in the original Judgment, or of the first period of that active term, are changed to:

The defendant shall report in a sober condition to begin serving his term on:	Day	Date	Hour	<input type="checkbox"/> AM <input type="checkbox"/> PM	and shall remain in custody until:	Day	Date	Hour	<input type="checkbox"/> AM <input type="checkbox"/> PM

4. The additional costs that attach are:

5. Other:

6. It is further ORDERED that the Clerk deliver two certified copies of the original Judgment and of this Judgment to the sheriff or other qualified officer and that the officer cause the defendant to be delivered with these copies to the custody of the agency named in the original Judgment to begin serving the sentence imposed.
