FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A hearing was held on (date) _____. All parties were present, represented, or received proper notice of the hearing. After hearing the evidence and argument, the Court finds the following facts and makes the following conclusions of law.

- 1. The Court has personal jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter jurisdiction over this case.
- 2. The above-named obligor is the parent of the minor child(ren) named on the attached child support worksheet and has a duty to support his/her minor child(ren). The income and expenses of the parties are as indicated on the attached child support worksheet, which is incorporated by reference. Under the presumptive child support guidelines, the obligor owes a duty of support for his/her minor child(ren) in the amount of $ _____ per month.

3. The Court finds that it is appropriate to deviate from the presumptive child support guidelines for the following reasons:

4. The Court finds and concludes that child support in the amount of $ _____ per month is reasonable and that the obligor has the ability to pay child support in that amount.

5. Immediate income withholding is:

- required.
- not required because:
 - the parties have agreed in writing to an alternative arrangement for payment of child support.
 - one of the parties has demonstrated that there is a reasonable and workable plan for consistent and timely payment of child support by some means other than income withholding or that there is other good cause not to require immediate income withholding.

NOTE: Complete and attach Child Support Worksheet (AOC-CV-627, 628, or 629), as applicable, and Cover Sheet For Child Support Cases (Non-IV-D Only) AOC-CV-640.
