INSTRUCTIONS TO VICTIM OR PERSON ASSERTING RIGHTS ON BEHALF OF VICTIM: Carefully review the NOTE at the top of Side Two of this form, then complete Side One of this form and file it with the Clerk of Superior Court in the county in which the juvenile proceeding is pending. The clerk will not assess you any fees for filing this motion. If you are alleging that the Office of the District Attorney failed to comply with the rights of a victim, then before filing this motion, you first must file a written complaint with the Office of the District Attorney and allow the Office of the District Attorney an opportunity to act in a timely manner to resolve the issue. If you believe the Office of the District Attorney has not resolved the issue in a timely manner and therefore are filing this motion alleging a Delinquency Victims' Rights Act violation by the Office of the District Attorney, you must attach a copy of the written complaint that you previously filed with the District Attorney.

NOTE TO VICTIM OR PERSON ASSERTING RIGHTS ON BEHALF OF VICTIM

NOTE: A victim may assert the rights under Article 20A (Delinquency Victims' Rights Act) of Chapter 7B by filing a motion within the same juvenile proceeding that gave rise to the rights of the victim. Any of the following persons may file the motion:

- the victim; ▪ the victim's attorney; ▪ the prosecutor, at the request of the victim;
- a parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the victim, if the victim is a minor or is legally incapacitated;
- a spouse, child, parent, guardian, legal custodian, sibling, or grandparent of the victim (in that order of priority, with the victim's spouse having first priority), if the victim is deceased. (If the deceased victim was a minor, then the guardian or legal custodian of the minor has priority over any other family member.)

The juvenile may not assert the rights of the victim. An individual who has first priority to exercise the victim's rights as a family member (spouse, child, parent, guardian, legal custodian, sibling, or grandparent) may designate another family member to act on behalf of the victim. A victim has the right to consult with an attorney regarding an alleged violation of the Delinquency Victims' Rights Act, but a victim does not have a right to counsel provided at State expense. If the judge fails to review the motion and dispose of it or set it for hearing in a timely manner, the victim may petition the NC Court of Appeals for a writ of mandamus as provided in G.S. 7B-2058(h).
