- Access to Medical/Therapeutic records of the minor child(ren) in this matter.
- Access to Medical/Therapeutic records of the parents in this matter.
- Access to School records and staff.
- Access to the minor child(ren) while in school.
- All court pleadings and discovery responses necessary to child custody.
- Access to Our Family Wizard (if being used by the parties)

B. Specific Authority: In order to carry out the general authority granted to the Guardian Ad Litem, the following specific areas are also granted to the Guardian Ad Litem to access (Check and write in those that apply):

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

7. Role of Guardian Ad Litem.

The Guardian Ad Litem shall promptly provide a written report to the court, the parties, and attorneys for the parties.

8. Appointments with the Guardian Ad Litem.

- A. The Guardian Ad Litem may set a time and place for a brief informational meeting.
- B. Each parent shall make a good faith effort to be available for appointments when requested by the Guardian Ad Litem.
- C. The Guardian Ad Litem shall notify the Court, with copies to the parties or their attorneys, if either party refuses to cooperate.
- D. The parent shall provide all records, documentation and information requested by the Guardian Ad Litem within fifteen (15) calendar days of the request. The Guardian Ad Litem may not request materials subject to attorney/client privilege, and may not require the release of documents protected by law except upon proper consent and release by the parties or by Order of the Court.

- E. If a Guardian Ad Litem requests for a release to be executed for medical and/or therapeutic access, the parent shall cooperate and execute the release within five (5) calendar days of the request.

9. Communication.

- A. The parties and their attorneys, if they are represented, may communicate with the Guardian Ad Litem ex parte (without the other parent present). This applies to oral communications and any written documentation or communication submitted to the Guardian Ad Litem.
- B. The Guardian Ad Litem may communicate ex parte with the parents and their attorneys, and other professionals involved in the case. This applies to both written and oral communications. The Guardian Ad Litem may talk with each parent without the presence of either counsel.
- C. The Guardian Ad Litem shall not communicate ex parte with the Judge assigned to the case.
- D. The Guardian Ad Litem may request instructions from the Court, either in a Court hearing on this case or in writing directed to the Court, with notice to all parties and attorneys.
- E. Any party involved in any legal action that affects this Order shall notify the Guardian Ad Litem.

10. Confidentiality.

- A. There is no confidentiality concerning communications between the parents and the Guardian Ad Litem. As required by the Court, the Guardian Ad Litem may communicate with custody evaluators, therapists or other individuals investigating the issues. The Guardian Ad Litem shall comply with the law to report child abuse, and threats of abuse against another person. In cases involving domestic violence, the Guardian Ad Litem and legal counsel (or the parents themselves, if not represented) shall address to the Court any safety concerns, subject to the prohibition against ex parte communication.
- B. Each party must allow the Guardian Ad Litem to review documentation filed with the Court or received into evidence, voluntarily released by the parties, or released by Order of the Court about his/her and their child/ren from the physician(s), therapist(s), teacher(s), evaluator(s), previous Guardian Ad Litem and other professional involved in this case (except for the attorney representing him/her). Each party must allow the Guardian Ad Litem to speak with his or her attorney and other collateral sources as the Guardian Ad Litem deems appropriate; however, the Guardian Ad Litem is not authorized to share the materials or discuss confidential information with anyone outside the case. Provided, however, that the party's obligation under this paragraph does not extend to other privileges recognized by law.

11. Involvement of Guardian Ad Litem in Litigation.

The Guardian Ad Litem's records may only be subpoenaed by order of the Judge presiding over the case.

The court must review the records in camera and may release the records to the parties and their attorneys only if the court determines release of the information contained in the records will assist the parties with the presentation of their case at trial.

12. Immunity.

The Guardian Ad Litem has immunity consistent with North Carolina law as to all actions undertaken pursuant to the Court appointment in this Order. This immunity applies to all acts done by the Guardian Ad Litem during the appointment and until the Guardian Ad Litem is given notice of his/her termination. The immunity continues to apply to acts required by the Court to conclude the Guardian Ad Litem's duty after termination.

13. Fees.

- A. The parents have the financial capacity to pay for the Guardian Ad Litem. The parties shall pay the Guardian Ad Litem for all of his/her time and costs incurred in processing the case. This includes time spent reviewing documents and correspondence, meetings and telephone calls with parents, attorneys, and other professionals involved in the case, and deliberation and issuance of decisions. Costs shall include long-distance telephone calls, copies, fax charges, and all other similar costs incurred by the Guardian Ad Litem pursuant to this Order. In addition, the parents shall pay for time spent by the Guardian Ad Litem in any hearing, settlement conference report writing, or other Court appearance that the Guardian Ad Litem's presence is requested or required. Nonpayment of fees may subject the nonpaying parent to prosecution for indirect contempt of Court for failure to abide by the Order. Prior to the first appointment, the parents shall provide the Guardian Ad Litem with any deposit required by the Guardian Ad Litem.
- B. The Guardian Ad Litem hourly fee shall be paid as follows: Father shall pay _____% and Mother shall pay _____. This Guardian Ad Litem may modify this allocation, or may recommend to the Court that the allocation be modified if the Guardian Ad Litem finds that one parent is using his/her services unnecessarily and, as a result, is causing the other parent greater expense; or if one parent is acting in bad faith. Ultimately, the Court shall determine the proper allocation of fees between the parents and may require reimbursement by one parent to the other of any payment made to the Guardian Ad Litem. Either parent may request the fees be reallocated at any time during the Guardian Ad Litem's term of appointment, unless good cause shown for failing to appear at the appointment.
- C. If one parent pays 100% of the Guardian Ad Litem's fee, then that party has absolute right of indemnification against the other parent up to the percentage allocation for which the other parent was responsible. This reimbursement may be enforced by contempt.

This the ____ day of _____, 20_____.
