INSTRUCTIONS TO PARTIES
For Use in Completion of Equitable Distribution Financial Affidavit

- (1) READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY. The affidavit must be fully and accurately prepared. Your interest in this lawsuit will be harmed if your affidavit does not contain all the information required and is not accurate. Do not guess or estimate as to any figures or dates.
- (2) If you have questions or are unsure how to list certain information, ask your attorney first so that your affidavit will be complete and correct before it is placed in final typed form. Failure to fully comply with these instructions may result in your affidavit not being allowed into evidence by the Court.
- (3) The affidavit when filed with the Clerk of Court must be typed. There must be at least one original and two reproduced copies.
- (4) Each individual item must be listed separately.
- (5) Only marital property should be listed in Part I. Be certain that you understand from your attorney what is and is not marital property.
- (6) Addressing the mechanics of filling out the Part I affidavit, you will note the caption line beginning with the words "Affidavit Of". Designate yourself as the Plaintiff or Defendant / Husband or Wife; list the page number of the sheet and file number.
- (7) The order in which you list each asset should follow the same order as listed at the end of these instructions. Due to the amount of information required, this could mean shifting from page two of one affidavit to page fifty of another to secure information about the same asset. You will begin this affidavit completion process by filling in the Item Number block with the classification of your asset or Real Property – resident is I(a); place I(a) in the Item Number column and list the description and present location of that piece of property. Proceed from asset description to asset description omitting and adding the facts required under the Description of Asset column, list numerically each item in that classification.
- (8) Some types of information do not apply to certain assets. For example, the saving accounts listed will not have an "Amount of Outstanding Mortgage/Lien" entry.
- (9) If you need more sheets than originally given you, obtain more from your attorney, or copy the original provided to you. Do not fill blank sheets out on your own and attach them to the sheets provided to you.
- (10) Remember to accurately complete the "Total" in the columns that require a total.
- (11) Remember that the property to be listed in Part III of the affidavit is "separate property" only. Be certain that you understand from your attorney what is "separate property". The items of separate property should be listed in the same order as shown in paragraph 6 of these instructions.
- (12) When you are given the affidavit by your attorney, you should complete it and return it to him/her as soon as possible.
- (13) If you are not represented by an attorney, the rules of Court apply equally to you and it is your responsibility to fully comply with these instructions.
- (14) Omissions or misstatements of fact in your affidavits may subject you to sanctions by the Court.
