Re: Fifth Judicial District Response to COVID-19 (Coronavirus)

On March 13, 2020 Chief Justice Cheri Beasley entered an order implementing measures designed to curb the spread of COVID-19 and minimize the risk of exposure caused by crowded sessions of court. Consistent with the Chief Justice's order, effective Monday, March 16, superior court and district court proceedings of the Fifth Judicial District will be rescheduled for at least 30 days, with limited exceptions, which appear on the following pages.

The emergency directive of the Chief Justice does not prohibit a judge or other judicial officer from exercising in chambers or ex parte jurisdiction conferred by law upon that judge or judicial officer, as provided by law.

On March 19, 2020 Chief Justice Cheri Beasley entered an order extending filing deadlines for most trial court and clerk cases, ordering that all other acts that were or are due to be done in any county of this state on or after 16 March 2020 and before the close of business on 17 April 2020 in civil actions, criminal actions, estates, and special proceedings shall be deemed to be timely done if they are done before the close of business on 17 April 2020.

Court offices in New Hanover and Pender Counties will remain open. However, unless you are required to appear in-person to conduct your business, attorneys and the public are strongly encouraged to use email and telephone to communicate with staff of the Fifth Judicial District. While filings are permitted, you are encouraged to use your discretion in delaying filings for the duration of this crisis.

On line services are available for handling some court business, including citation services, paying your ticket, court payments, signing up for court date notifications and reminders, and more.

Accurate and timely information may be obtained from the following resources:

- Information about the North Carolina Judicial Branch system-wide response to the COVID-19 virus is available on the NCCourts.gov website.
- Information specific to New Hanover and Pender County will also be posted on this website.

Criminal District Court

- Courtroom 317 will be operating daily for morning sessions at 9:30am to hear guilty pleas and probation violation admissions for defendants in custody with a limited exception set out below. Domestic violence first appearances will be heard in this session.
 - The use of written waivers of appearance pursuant to NCGS 15A-1011 is encouraged. In the event a probationary judgment is entered, probation intake will need to be notified, and the release order sent to the jail will need to note "hold until probation intake completed." Intake will be completed that same day.
 - Guilty pleas by written waiver will also be accepted in non-jail cases at the request of counsel. Counsel are requested to give one day's notice to the Clerk's Office by email to jan.g.kennedy@nccourts.org, Leighann.laverdure@nccourts.org, Sandra.g.gerstenmier@cncourts.org. Please send the notice to all three due to floating schedules in the clerk's office. Counsel may set cases on dates other than scheduled court dates. Guilty pleas that involve supervised probation, incarceration as a result of the plea, or Marsy's Law issues cannot be considered under this subsection.
- Courtroom 100 will be operating daily at 2pm for 1st appearances and bond hearings. Domestic violence 1st appearances not heard in the morning session of 317 will be conducted by video.
- Felony Court will be conducted in New Hanover County each Thursday in Courtroom 302 at 9:30am. The only cases that will be considered are guilty pleas for defendants who are in custody that have been negotiated with the Assistant District Attorney and admissions to probation violations. All other cases will be continued.
- Criminal Court in Pender County, including Felony Court, will continue as regularly scheduled, but will only consider guilty pleas and admissions to probation violations by defendants who are in custody. All other cases will be rescheduled beyond 30 days. 1st appearances will continue to be conducted during scheduled sessions of Pender County Court.
- All other criminal and traffic courts will be closed, and cases will be rescheduled beyond 30 days.
- No orders for arrest for failure to appear, orders for arrest for failure to comply, or failure to appear will issue pending further order.
