RULE 2. READY CASES

2.1 The Court Manager shall establish and maintain a case tracking system pursuant to Rule 2(c), General Rules of Practice for Superior Court and in accordance with these rules. This system shall be used to monitor the number, age, type, and procedural status of all pending cases and provide for the calendaring of the same.

2.2 A case shall be ready to set for trial when the Court Manager has determined at least one of following has occurred:

- (a) A case has been on file for one hundred and twenty (120) days or more;
- (b) A case has been transferred to the Superior Court Division on an appeal from the Clerk of Superior Court;
- (c) A case had been remanded for trial by the Appellate Division;
- (d) A case is entitled to a priority hearing by statute;
- (e) Prior to the Notice of Calendar Setting Conference, all counsel/unrepresented parties have signed and filed with the Court Manager a written Notice To Calendar certifying the case is ready for trial and requesting that it be expedited and placed on a trial calendar. The Notice to Calendar shall be on a form [Anson Calendar Request, Richmond Calendar Request, or Scotland Calendar Request as prepared and distributed by the Court Manager's Office.]

Counsel shall forthwith provide written notice to the Court Manager of any case identified in Rule 2.2 \(b\), 2.2 \(c\), or 2.2\(d\) above.

2.3. No case shall be continued or relieved from calendaring because additional time is needed to file an answer, even if all parties agree, unless for a crucial case that could not have been foreseen.

2.4 In medical malpractice cases scheduling deadlines and trial settings shall be made in accordance with Rule 3.4, Rule 4.11 and Rule 5.2 below.

2.5 The Court Manager shall place those cases that he/she has determined to be ready for trial on the trial calendar pursuant to Rule 4 below.

RULE 3. DISCOVERY PERIOD

3.1 Discovery must be completed within one hundred twenty (120) days after the last required pleading is filed. An extension of time to complete discovery may be granted by the Court Manager, for good cause.

3.2 A motion requesting additional time to complete discovery must be filed with the Court Manager prior to the expiration of the statutory one hundred and twenty (120) day period or the expiration of any discovery periods allowed. Any date established for the trial of the action shall be noted in the motion.

3.3 Additional extensions of time to complete discovery will only be granted when the trial will not be delayed. Requests by the same party will be granted only in exceptional circumstances.

3.4 A Medical Malpractice case will be set for a discovery conference within thirty (30) days of the case coming at issue, or the filing of the last responsive pleading, or a motion requiring determination by the court.

- (a) Counsel shall notice the conference for hearing pursuant to Rule 9 below. Failure of counsel to hold the discovery conference within the time period specified will not serve to delay the trial of the action and may subject counsel to such other sanctions deemed appropriate and allowed by law.

RULE 4. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TRIAL CALENDAR

4.1 The Civil Calendar Notice (Notice of Trial) shall serve as the final calendar and shall be distributed to all parties, not less than four (4) weeks prior to trial.

4.2 Once the Court Manager has determined a case to be ready for trial under the guidelines set forth in Rule 2 above, the Court Manager shall notice all parties that a calendar setting conference will be held at the courthouse to establish scheduling deadlines and a trial date, as well as determination of Mediated Settlement Conference requirements. Attorneys for all parties appearing in the case shall participate in this conference. A party shall participate in person if he/she has no attorney.

4.3 The calendar setting conference date shall not occur less than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the filing of the complaint unless set by special order or application of parties.

4.4 At the calendar setting conference, every case shall be set for trial no sooner than thirty (30) days, but not later than four (4) months for non-jury cases and six (6) months for jury cases.

4.5 Any case currently on file for two hundred and ten (210) days or more will be subject to the expedited assignment of a trial date.

4.6 At the calendar setting conference, each party shall be prepared to certify to the Court that:

- No additional parties are necessary;
- Experts, if any, have been disclosed;
- Discovery has been completed;
- Pleadings are closed;
- Dispositive motions have been filed and ruled upon by the Court.

As an alternative to the certification, the parties may report the terms of a mutual, scheduling agreement that accomplishes all the foregoing matters necessary to bring the parties into compliance with Rule 5 set forth below.

4.7 At the calendar setting conference, all counsel must have knowledge of their personal, clients' and witnesses' schedules or have a partner, associate, or other attorney present who is familiar with these schedules. This will allow for the setting of reasonable scheduling deadlines and firm trial dates.

4.8 At the calendar setting conference, all attorneys should be prepared to address requests for exemption from mediation, special scheduling deadline requests, peremptory settings, requests for exceptional case status, or any other similarly situated case management matters.

4.9 Failure of counsel to appear at the calendar setting conference will result in the automatic assignment of a trial date, scheduling order, mediation conference deadline date and assignment of a mediator, by the Court Manager. Continuances will not be granted even if all parties agree, unless for a crucial cause that could not have been foreseen.

4.10 "Participation" at the calendar setting conference shall be defined as appearing in person at the time, date and place as indicated on the Notice of the Calendar Setting Conference. Unless prior to the date of the conference the party has communicated with the office of the Court Manager by means of U.S. mail, telephone, facsimile, electronic mail or hand delivery concerning preferences as to the trial date and mediator selection.

JUDICIAL ASSIGNMENT IN SUPERIOR COURT MEDICAL MALPRACTICE CASES

4.11 A Medical Malpractice case shall be set for trial by the Court Manager contemporaneously with the establishment of the Medical Malpractice Discovery Scheduling Order or consistent with Rule 2 above whichever occurs first.

4.12 On July 7, 2022, the Governor signed into law Session Law 2022-47 (HB 607) (hereinafter, the “Act”). The Act amends G.S. 7A-47.3(e), which was enacted in 2021 and established a new procedure for the assignment of superior court judges to preside over medical malpractice actions brought in the Superior Court Division.

Section 8. (a) of the Act amends G.S. 7A-47.3(e) as follows:

(e) The senior resident superior court judge [SRSCJ], in consultation with the parties to the case, shall designate a specific judge or a specific judge assigned to hold court in the district to preside over all proceedings that occur 150 days after the case was filed in cases subject to G.S. 90- 21.11(2).

This amendment changes the previous requirement that the same judge preside over all proceedings in a medical malpractice action from start to finish. As amended, the assigned judge must preside over all proceedings that occur 150 days after the action is filed until the action is finished. Proceedings that occur prior to the 150th day may be heard by any judge presiding in the district, including the assigned judge, but the assigned judge is not required to preside over any proceedings until the case reaches the 150th day after it is filed.

- (a) At the time the Medical Malpractice Scheduling Order is presented for signature to the court, counsel shall also submit to the Court Manager in writing no more than three (3) agreed upon trial dates.
- (b) The dates submitted shall not exceed eighteen (18) months from the time of filing.
- (c) The sequence of the dates submitted shall be deemed the priority order of the request and shall be taken into consideration by the Court Manager in establishing a trial date.
- (d) Any request for a preemptory setting shall be made in compliance with Rule 8.3 below.

4.13 Any case not in compliance with Rule 5.2 below, shall be subject to trial scheduling in the discretion of the Court Manager.

4.14 The trial date that is set shall be a firm date. Continuances will not be granted, even if all parties agree, unless for a crucial cause that could not have been foreseen.

4.15 Pursuant to Rule 2(e) General Rules of Practice for Superior and District Courts and consistent with ethical requirements, counsel for all parties in an action, when notified to appear for the setting of the trial date, pre-trial conference, mediated settlement conference or for hearing of a motion or trial, must appear as scheduled or have a partner, associate, or other attorney familiar with the case present.

4.16 It shall be the ongoing duty of all counsel/unrepresented parties to notify the Court Manager of any addition(s) or deletion(s) of counsel/ unrepresented parties.

<sup>1</sup> State law specifies the factors that judges must consider when ruling on pretrial continuance requests in criminal cases. G.S. 15A-952(g). State law entitles defendants in criminal cases to continuances in certain situations without any showing of good cause. E.g., G.S. 15A-1023(b) (defendant must be granted continuance upon judge's rejection of plea arrangement); 15A-1024 (defendant is entitled to continuance upon withdrawal of plea following judge's determination to impose sentence other than as provided for in plea arrangement). There is at least one circumstance in which state law entitles the state to a continuance. 9.2 Opposing counsel/unrepresented parties must be notified of the motion for continuance prior to the delivery of the request to the Court Manager. The manner and date of notice to opposing counsel/unrepresented parties shall be indicated on the motion.

9.5 Motions for continuance pursuant to Rule 9.1\(b\) may be ruled upon by the Court Manager provided all provisions of Rule 9 are met, and all parties may be notified of the ruling prior to the scheduled court session.
