Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁸

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁸ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁴

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁴ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²¹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

²¹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁷

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

²⁷ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁴

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁴ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁰

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁰ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁷

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁷ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁵³

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁵³ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁶⁰

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ⁶⁰ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁶⁶

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁶⁶ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁷³

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁷³ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁷⁹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁷⁹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁸⁶

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁸⁶ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁹²

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁹² See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁹⁹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁹⁹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁰⁵

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁰⁵ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹¹²

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹¹² See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹¹⁸

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ¹¹⁸ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹²⁵

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹²⁵ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹³¹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹³¹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹³⁸

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹³⁸ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁴⁴

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁴⁴ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁵¹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁵¹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁵⁷

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁵⁷ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁶⁴

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁶⁴ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁷⁰

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁷⁰ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁷⁷

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁷⁷ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁸³

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁸³ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁹⁰

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ¹⁹⁰ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.¹⁹⁶

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

¹⁹⁶ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁰³

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

²⁰³ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁰⁹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²⁰⁹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²¹⁶

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

²¹⁶ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²²²

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²²² See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²²⁹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²²⁹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²³⁵

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

²³⁵ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁴²

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²⁴² See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁴⁸

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²⁴⁸ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁵⁵

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²⁵⁵ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁶¹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²⁶¹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁶⁸

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²⁶⁸ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁷⁴

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

²⁷⁴ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁸¹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ²⁸¹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁸⁷

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

²⁸⁷ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.²⁹⁴

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

²⁹⁴ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁰⁰

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ³⁰⁰ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁰⁷

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁰⁷ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³¹³

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³¹³ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³²⁰

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³²⁰ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³²⁶

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³²⁶ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³³³

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³³³ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³³⁹

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³³⁹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁴⁶

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁴⁶ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁵²

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁵² See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁵⁹

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁵⁹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁶⁵

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁶⁵ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁷²

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁷² See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁷⁸

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁷⁸ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁸⁵

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁸⁵ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁹¹

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁹¹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.³⁹⁸

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

³⁹⁸ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁰⁴

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁰⁴ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴¹¹

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴¹¹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴¹⁷

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver ⁴¹⁷ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴²⁴

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴²⁴ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴³⁰

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴³⁰ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴³⁷

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴³⁷ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁴³

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁴³ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁵⁰

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁵⁰ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁵⁶

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁵⁶ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁶³

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁶³ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017- 2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁶⁹

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁶⁹ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.⁴⁷⁶

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry will be made available online on February 16th at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

⁴⁷⁶ See Session Law 2017-57, Sections 18B.6.(a) and (b) (https://www.ncleg.net/EnactedLegislation/SessionLaws/HTML/2017-2018/SL2017-57.html) for further details.
