

CONTINUING MEDIATOR EDUCATION

PERMISSION AND RELEASE FOR USE OF MATERIALS

I, _____, hereby give the North Carolina Dispute Resolution Commission (NCDRC) an irrevocable, non-exclusive license to use the recording of my live ____ hour training entitled _____ created for use by the Dispute Resolution Commission in Wake County, North Carolina on _____ (date of the Recording), for educational and training purposes. This includes any PowerPoint presentation(s), manuscript(s), and/or other material(s) I have prepared in connection with the program listed above.

I represent that no other entity holds the copyright to this work. In the alternative, I acknowledge that I do not hold the copyright to this work as it has been previously published in the following journal or text: _____. If another entity holds the copyright to this work, I will supply the NCDRC with the copyright holder’s permission to use this material for distribution at NCDRC continuing mediation education events and/or for Internet posting.

I hereby grant the NCDRC the right to post the recording on the ncdrc.gov website so that it is freely available to the public, the right to post the recording on its internal website (generally known as “JUNO”) for distribution to judicial officials and staff in the Judicial Branch, the right to make unlimited copies of the recording for distribution to judicial officials, staff in the Judicial Branch, and the public, and the right to include the recording in live and recorded trainings for judicial officials, staff, and the general public. I understand that I shall not receive any financial or other form of remuneration for the use of these training materials and videos.

I have read the foregoing, and I fully understand the contents, meaning and impact of this release.

This the _____ day of _____, 20____.
