Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>2</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>8</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>21</sup>

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>27</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>33</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>39</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>45</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>51</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>57</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>63</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. # Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>76</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>82</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>88</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>94</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>100</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>106</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>112</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>118</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>131</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>137</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>143</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>149</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>155</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>161</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>167</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>173</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>179</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>185</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>191</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>197</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>203</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>209</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>222</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>228</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>234</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>240</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>246</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>252</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>258</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>264</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>270</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>276</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>282</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>295</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>301</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>307</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>313</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>319</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>325</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>331</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>337</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>343</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>362</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>368</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>374</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern—

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>380</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>386</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>392</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. Re: Notice to Government Entities Receiving Court Costs and Fines

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>398</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

To Whom It May Concern-

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) is sending you this notice because you have been identified as a state or local government entity that may receive court costs or fines imposed in criminal and infraction cases. Effective December 1, 2017, government entities "directly affected" by any waiver or remission of court costs and fines are entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard, through counsel, on any such waiver or remission.<sup>404</sup>

By this notice, you are advised that at any setting of criminal court, a court may waive or remit costs and fines. Below is a link to the NCAOC's online criminal calendars webpage, searchable by county.

http://www1.aoc.state.nc.us/www/calendars/Criminal.html

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice. The registry is available online at: http://nccourts.org/costwaiver

If an entity chooses to send counsel to a session of criminal court, counsel shall notify the courtroom clerk that he or she is present and requests the opportunity to be heard on any waiver.

In the interest of providing both (i) an efficient mechanism for government entities to express their preferences on such waivers without appearing in court and (ii) a single resource that trial court officials may consult about each entity's position, the NCAOC will maintain a statewide registry of entity responses generated from the form on the back of this notice.
