

In the Supreme Court of North Carolina

Order Adopting Amendments to the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators

WHEREAS, Sect. 7A-38.2 of the North Carolina General Statutes establishes the Dispute Resolution Commission under the Judicial Department and charges it with the administration of mediator certification and regulation of mediator conduct and decertification, and

WHEREAS, N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2(a) provides for this Court to adopt standards for the conduct of mediators and of mediator training programs participating in the proceedings conducted pursuant to N.C.G.S. Sect. 7A-38.1, 7A-38.3, 7A-38.4A, 7A-38.3B, and 7A-38.3C.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2(a), the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators are hereby amended to read as in the following pages. These amended Rules shall be effective on the 1st of April, 2014.

Adopted by the Court in conference the 23rd day of January, 2014. The Appellate Division Reporter shall promulgate by publication as soon as practicable the portions of the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators amended through this action in the advance sheets of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals.

PREAMBLE

These Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators (Standards) shall apply to all mediators who are certified by the North Carolina Dispute Resolution Commission (Commission) or who are not certified, but are conducting court-ordered mediations in the context of a program or process that is governed by statutes, as amended from time to time, which provide for the Commission to regulate the conduct of mediators participating in the program or process. Provided, however, that if there is a specific statutory provision that conflicts with these Standards, then the statute shall control.

These Standards are intended to instill and promote public confidence in the mediation process and to provide minimum standards for mediator conduct. As with other forms of dispute resolution, mediation must be built upon public understanding and confidence. Persons serving as mediators are responsible to the parties, the public and the courts to conduct themselves in a manner that will merit that confidence. (See Rule VII of the Rules of the North Carolina Supreme Court for the Dispute Resolution Commission.)

It is the mediator's role to facilitate communication and understanding among the parties and to assist them in reaching an agreement. The mediator should aid the parties in identifying and discussing issues and in exploring options for settlement. The mediator should not, however, render a decision on the issues in dispute. In mediation, the ultimate decision whether and on what terms to resolve the dispute belongs to the parties and the parties alone.

I. Competency: A mediator shall maintain professional competency in mediation skills and, where the mediator lacks the skills necessary for a particular case, shall decline to serve or withdraw from serving.

- A. A mediator's most important qualification is the mediator's competence in procedural aspects of facilitating the resolution of disputes rather than the mediator's familiarity with technical knowledge relating to the subject of the dispute. Therefore a mediator shall obtain necessary skills and substantive training appropriate to the mediator's areas of practice and upgrade those skills on an ongoing basis.
- B. If a mediator determines that a lack of technical knowledge impairs or is likely to impair the mediator's effectiveness, the mediator shall notify the parties and withdraw if requested by any party.
- C. Beyond disclosure under the preceding paragraph, a mediator is obligated to exercise his/her judgment as to whether his/her skills or expertise are sufficient to the demands of the case and, if they are not, to decline from serving or to withdraw.

II. Impartiality: A mediator shall, in word and action, maintain impartiality toward the parties and on the issues in dispute.

- A. Impartiality means absence of prejudice or bias in word and action. In addition, it means a commitment to aid all parties, as opposed to a single party, in exploring the possibilities for resolution.
- B. As early as practical and no later than the beginning of the first session, the mediator shall make full disclosure of any known relationships with the parties or their counsel that may affect or give the appearance of affecting the mediator's impartiality.
- C. The mediator shall decline to serve or shall withdraw from serving if:
 - (1) a party objects to his/her serving on grounds of lack of impartiality, and after discussion, the party continues to object; or
 - (2) the mediator determines he/she cannot serve impartially.

III. Confidentiality: A mediator shall, subject to exceptions set forth below, maintain the confidentiality of all information obtained within the mediation process.

- A. A mediator shall not disclose, directly or indirectly, to any non-participant, any information communicated to the mediator by a participant within the mediation process, whether the information is obtained before, during or after the mediated settlement conference. A mediator's filing with the appropriate court a copy of an agreement reached in mediation pursuant to a statute that mandates such filing shall not be considered to be a violation of this paragraph.

- B. A mediator shall not disclose, directly or indirectly, to any participant, information communicated to the mediator in confidence by any other participant in the mediation process, whether the information is obtained before, during or after the mediated settlement conference, unless that other participant gives the mediator permission to do so. A mediator may encourage a participant to permit disclosure, but absent such permission, the mediator shall not disclose.
- C. A mediator shall not disclose to court officials or staff any information communicated to the mediator by any participant within the mediation process, whether before, during or after the mediated settlement conference, including correspondence or communications regarding scheduling or attendance, except as required to complete a report of mediator for the court; provided, however, when seeking to collect a fee for services, the mediator may share correspondence or communications from a participant relating to the fees of the mediator. The confidentiality provisions above notwithstanding, if a mediator believes that communicating certain procedural matters to court personnel will aid the mediation, then with the consent of the parties to the mediation, the mediator may do so. In making any permitted disclosure, a mediator shall refrain from expressing personal opinions about a participant or any aspect of the case with court officials or staff.
- D. The confidentiality provisions set forth in A, B, and C above notwithstanding, a mediator may report otherwise confidential conduct or statements made in preparation for, during or as a follow-up to mediation in the circumstances set forth in sections (1) and (2) below:

(1) A statute requires or permits a mediator to testify or to give an affidavit or to tender a copy of any agreement reached in mediation to the official designated by the statute.

If, pursuant to Family Financial Settlement (FFS) and Mediated Settlement Conference (MSC) Rule 5, a mediator has been subpoenaed by a party to testify about who attended or failed to attend a mediated settlement conference/mediation, the mediator shall limit his/her testimony to providing the names of those who were physically present or who attended by electronic means.

If, pursuant to FFS and MSC Rule 5, a mediator has been subpoenaed by a party to testify about a party's failure to pay the mediator's fee, the mediator's testimony shall be limited to information about the amount of the fee and who had or had not paid it and shall not include statements made by any participant about the merits of the case.

(2) To a participant, non-participant, law enforcement personnel or other persons affected by the harm intended where public safety is an issue, in the following circumstances:

- (i) a party or other participant in the mediation has communicated to the mediator a threat of serious bodily harm or death to be inflicted on any person, and the mediator has reason to believe the party has the intent and ability to act on the threat; or
- (ii) a party or other participant in the mediation has communicated to the mediator a threat of significant damage to real or personal property and the mediator has reason to believe the party has the intent and ability to act on the threat; or
- (iii) a party's or other participant's conduct during the mediation results in direct bodily injury or death to a person.

If the mediator is a North Carolina lawyer and a lawyer made the statements or committed the conduct reportable under subsection D(2) above, then the mediator shall report the statements or conduct to the North Carolina State Bar (State Bar) or the court having jurisdiction over the matter in accordance with North Carolina State Bar Rule of Professional Conduct 8.3(e).

- E. Nothing in this Standard prohibits the use of information obtained in a mediation for instructional purposes or for the purpose of evaluating or monitoring the performance of a mediator, mediation organization or dispute resolution program, so long as the parties or the specific circumstances of the parties' controversy are not identified or identifiable.
- F. Nothing in this Standard shall prohibit a mediator from revealing communications or conduct occurring prior to, during or after a mediation in the event that a party to or a participant in a mediation has filed a complaint regarding the mediator's professional conduct, moral character or fitness to practice as a mediator and the mediator reveals the communication or conduct for the purpose of defending him/herself against the complaint. In making any such disclosures, the mediator should make every effort to protect the confidentiality of non-complaining parties to or participants in the mediation and avoid disclosing the specific circumstances of the parties' controversy. The mediator may consult with non-complaining parties or witnesses to consider their input regarding disclosures.

IV. Consent: A mediator shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that each party understands the mediation process, the role of the mediator and the party's options within the process.

- A. A mediator shall discuss with the participants the rules and procedures pertaining to the mediation process and shall inform the parties of such matters as applicable rules require.

- B. A mediator shall not exert undue pressure on a participant, whether to participate in mediation or to accept a settlement; nevertheless, a mediator shall encourage parties to consider both the benefits of participation and settlement and the costs of withdrawal and impasse.
- C. If a party appears to have difficulty comprehending the process, issues or settlement options or difficulty participating in a mediation, the mediator shall explore the circumstances and potential accommodations, modifications or adjustments that would facilitate the party's capacity to comprehend, participate and exercise self-determination. If the mediator then determines that the party cannot meaningfully participate in the mediation, the mediator shall recess or discontinue the mediation. Before discontinuing the mediation, the mediator shall consider the context and circumstance of the mediation, including subject matter of the dispute, availability of support persons for the party and whether the party is represented by counsel.
- D. In appropriate circumstances, a mediator shall inform the parties of the importance of seeking legal, financial, tax or other professional advice before, during or after the mediation process.

V. Self Determination: A mediator shall respect and encourage self-determination by the parties in their decision whether, and on what terms, to resolve their dispute and shall refrain from being directive and judgmental regarding the issues in dispute and options for settlement.

- A. A mediator is obligated to leave to the parties full responsibility for deciding whether and on what terms to resolve their dispute. He/She may assist them in making informed and thoughtful decisions, but shall not impose his/her judgment or opinions for those of the parties concerning any aspect of the mediation.
- B. A mediator may raise questions for the participants to consider regarding their perceptions of the dispute as well as the acceptability of proposed options for settlement and their impact on third parties. Furthermore, a mediator may suggest for consideration options for settlement in addition to those conceived of by the parties themselves.
- C. A mediator shall not impose his/her opinion about the merits of the dispute or about the acceptability of any proposed option for settlement. A mediator should resist giving his/her opinions about the dispute and options for settlement even when he/she is requested to do so by a party or attorney. Instead, a mediator should help that party utilize his/her own resources to evaluate the dispute and the options for settlement.

This section prohibits imposing one's opinions, advice and/or counsel upon a party or attorney. It does not prohibit the mediator's expression of an opinion as a last resort to a party or attorney who requests it and the mediator has already helped that party utilize his/her own resources to evaluate the dispute and options.

- D. Subject to Standard IV.D above, if a party to a mediation declines to consult an independent counsel or expert after the mediator has raised this option, the mediator shall permit the mediation to go forward according to the parties' wishes.
- E. If, in the mediator's judgment, the integrity of the process has been compromised by, for example, inability or unwillingness of a party to participate meaningfully, inequality of bargaining power or ability, unfairness resulting from non-disclosure or fraud by a participant or other circumstance likely to lead to a grossly unjust result, the mediator shall inform the parties of the mediator's concern. Consistent with the confidentiality required in Standard III, the mediator may discuss with the parties the source of the concern. The mediator may choose to discontinue the mediation in such circumstances but shall not violate the obligation of confidentiality.

VI. Separation of Mediation from Legal and Other Professional Advice: A mediator shall limit himself or herself solely to the role of mediator, and shall not give legal or other professional advice during the mediation.

A mediator may provide information that the mediator is qualified by training or experience to provide only if the mediator can do so consistent with these Standards. Mediators may respond to a party's request for an opinion on the merits of the case or suitability of settlement proposals only in accordance with Section V.C above.

COMMISSION OFFICIAL COMMENT

Although mediators shall not provide legal or other professional advice, mediators may respond to a party's request for an opinion on the merits of the case or the suitability of settlement proposals only in accordance with Section V.C above, and mediators may provide information that they are qualified by training or experience to provide only if it can be done consistent with these Standards.

VII. Conflicts of Interest: A mediator shall not allow any personal interest to interfere with the primary obligation to impartially serve the parties to the dispute.

- A. The mediator shall place the interests of the parties above the interests of any court or agency which has referred the case, if such interests are in conflict.
- B. Where a party is represented or advised by a professional advocate or counselor, the mediator shall place the interests of the party over his/her own interest in maintaining cordial relations with the professional, if such interests are in conflict.
- C. A mediator who is a lawyer, therapist or other professional and the mediator's professional partners or co-shareholders shall not advise, counsel or represent any of the parties in future matters concerning the subject of the dispute, an action closely related to the dispute or an out growth of the dispute when the mediator or his/her staff has engaged in substantive conversations with any party to the dispute. Substantive conversations are those that go beyond discussion of the general issues in dispute, the identity of parties or participants and scheduling or administrative issues. Any disclosure that a party might expect the mediator to hold confidential pursuant to Standard III is a substantive conversation.

A mediator who is a lawyer, therapist or other professional may not mediate the dispute when the mediator or the mediator's professional partners or co-shareholders has advised, counseled or represented any of the parties in any matter concerning the subject of the dispute, an action closely related to the dispute, a preceding issue in the dispute or an out growth of the dispute.

- D. A mediator shall not charge a contingent fee or a fee based on the outcome of the mediation.
- E. A mediator shall not use information obtained or relationships formed during a mediation for personal gain or advantage.
- F. A mediator shall not knowingly contract for mediation services which cannot be delivered or completed as directed by a court or in a timely manner.
- G. A mediator shall not prolong a mediation for the purpose of charging a higher fee.
- H. A mediator shall not give or receive any commission, rebate or other monetary or non-monetary form of consideration from a party or representative of a party in return for referral or expectation of referral of clients for mediation services, except that a mediator may give or receive de minimis offerings such as sodas, cookies, snacks or lunches served to those attending mediations conducted by the mediator and intended to further those mediations or intended to show respect for cultural norms.

A mediator should neither give nor accept any gift, favor, loan or other item of value that raises a question as to the mediator's actual or perceived impartiality.

VIII. Protecting the Integrity of the Mediation Process. A mediator shall encourage mutual respect between the parties and shall take reasonable steps, subject to the principle of self-determination, to limit abuses of the mediation process.

- A. A mediator shall make reasonable efforts to ensure a balanced discussion and to prevent manipulation or intimidation by either party and to ensure that each party understands and respects the concerns and position of the other even if they cannot agree.
- B. If a mediator believes that the statements or actions of any participant, including those of a lawyer who the mediator believes is engaging in or has engaged in professional misconduct, jeopardize or will jeopardize the integrity of the mediation process, the mediator shall attempt to persuade the participant to cease his/her behavior and take remedial action. If the mediator is unsuccessful in this effort, s/he shall take appropriate steps including, but not limited to, postponing, withdrawing from or terminating the mediation. If a lawyer's statements or conduct are reportable under Standard III.C(2), the mediator shall report the lawyer to the State Bar or the court having jurisdiction over the matter in accordance with North Carolina State Bar Rule of Professional Conduct 8.3.
