² Although codified in G.S. 7A-308 (miscellaneous fees), the fee for alias and pluries issuance or endorsements on an original summons is limited to "civil matters" only, and does not apply to summons in special proceedings or estates.

⁵ The family court supervision fee is to be assessed per hour "to persons receiving the services of a supervised visitation and exchange center through a family court program."
