STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA CE CO.,	Ç.S.C.
5Y) OA J
v.)
) MOTION TO DISMISS NOAH READ)
Defendants.)

COME NOW Defendant Noah Read and moves this Court to dismiss the State's criminal charges against him. In support of his motion, Defendant offers the following:

- 1. On July 25, 2020, the Alamance Branch of the NAACP ("ANAACP") joined with faith leaders for a peaceful demonstration in the Sesquintennial Park, located at the corner of North Main and Court Square in downtown Graham. Those gathered were protesting police brutality and other forms of racial oppression and violence against African Americans and other people of color in the wake of the killing of George Floyd by police in May. See Declarations of Barrett L. Brown and Walter Allison, Exhibits A and B, respectively, attached hereto.
- 2. Soon after arriving at the demonstration that morning, Defendant Brown decided to cross Court Square with a "Black Lives Matter" sign and stand next to the Confederate monument located in front of the Historic Courthouse, in the center of the Court Square rotary, to protest white supremacy and racial violence. Ex. A ¶ 8. There was no traffic coming around the Court Square when Defendant Brown crossed, nor is the area where he stood with his sign, beside the monument, open to vehicular traffic. Id. ¶¶ 7-8. He was standing in the red-bricked pedestrian area that connects the crosswalk from North Main

- to the Courthouse's North entrance. In front of him was an orange and white barrier blocking off the pedestrian area from the Court Square rotary. See id. ¶ 8 (photo).
- 3. On July 25, 2020, the County and ACSO continued to maintain and enforce a policy of prohibiting all protest on the Historic Courthouse Grounds—a policy that was enjoined by a federal district court judge a violative of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution on August 14, 2020. See Preliminary Injunction at 1, 1:20-cv-00613-CCE-LPA, Document 63 (Aug. 14, 2020), attached hereto as Ex. C.
- 4. Enforcing the County's unconstitutional protest ban, Deputy Nash of the Alamance County Sheriff's Office (ACSO) immediately approached Defendant Brown and told him to leave. Defendant Brown refused to leave, stating that he was on public property and had a right to be there with his sign. ACSO's Mark Dockery and David Sykes then arrested Defendant Brown and charged him with Resisting a Public Officer and Impeding Traffic.
- 5. Defendant Allison, who was participating in the ANAACP demonstration, saw Defendant Brown being arrested, and using the North Main St. crosswalk, crossed Court Square to stand in the pedestrian area beside the Confederate monument with a sign protesting white supremacy. See Ex. B ¶ 4 (photo).
- 6. Enforcing the County's unconstitutional protest ban, Deputy Gionnotti told Defendant Allison to leave, and he, like Defendant Brown and for the same reasons, refused.
 ACSO's Mark Dockery and David Sykes then arrested Defendant Allison and charged him with Resisting a Public Officer and Impeding Traffic. Id.
- 7. Defendant Read, who was also at the ANAACP demonstration across the street, saw

 Defendants Brown and Allison being arrested and using the North Main St. crosswalk, also crossed Court Square to stand with a sign in the pedestrian area beside the Confederate monument to protest white supremacy. Enforcing the County's unconstitutional protest ban, ACSO's Deputy Gionnotti told Defendant Read to leave and when he refused, Sykes and Dockery arrested him and charged him with Resisting a Public Officer and Impeding Traffic. See Ex. A ¶ 12.

- 8. N.C.G.S. § 14-223 provides: "If any person shall willfully and unlawfully resist, delay or obstruct a public officer in discharging or attempting to discharge a duty of his office, he shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor."
- 9. N.C.G.S.§ 20-174.1 provides: "No person shall willfully stand, sit, or lie upon the highway or street in such a manner as to impede the regular flow of traffic," and makes doing so a Class 2 Misdemeanor.
- 10. Defendant's charging documents falsely accuse Defendant of "stand[ing] and loiter[ing] in the main traveled potion, including the shoulders and median of any state highway or street, excluding sidewalks."
- 11. The State cannot satisfy the elements of N.C.G.S.§ 20-174.1 where Defendant was not standing, sitting or lying upon any highway or street in such a manner as to impede the regular flow of traffic; he was peaceably exercising his First Amendment rights in a public pedestrian area that that is not a state highway or street or otherwise open to vehicular traffic.
- 12. Because he was violating no law but instead exercising his First Amendment rights,

 Defendant did not "unlawfully resist delay or obstruct" Gionnotti in discharging any lawful duty of office.

- 13. On August 14, 2020, the Honorable Catherine Eagles of the federal district court in the Middle District of North Carolina restrained and enjoined the ACSO from prohibiting lawful protest on the Courthouse grounds, which the court found to be a traditional public forum. See Ex. C. First Amendment rights are at their zenith in traditional public forums—that is, "public places historically associated with the free exercise of expressive activities, such as streets, sidewalks, and parks[.]" United States v. Grace, 461 U.S. 171, 177 (1983) (citations and internal quotation marks omitted).
- 14. The State's charges against Defendant further fail to satisfy the required elements of N.C.G.S. § 14-223 where prohibiting people from exercising their First Amendment rights in a traditional public forum such as the Historic Courthouse grounds is neither the "duty" nor lawful activity of the ACSO.

WHEREFORE, in light of all of the above, the State cannot prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Defendant unlawfully refused to obey a public officer's order, because he was in fact exercising his First Amendment rights to protest and the ACSO's orders for him to leave violated those rights. Nor can the State prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Defendant was standing, sitting or lying in a highway or street in such a way as to impede the flow of traffic. The Court should therefore DISMISS all charges against Defendant.

This the 6th day of November, 2020.

DECLARATION OF BARRETT BROWN

- 1. My name is Barrett Brown and I am President of the Alamance Branch of the NAACP. I am over the age of eighteen and am competent to provide the information that follows based upon my personal knowledge.
- 2. On July 25, 2020, I arrived shortly before 9:00 a.m. to participate in the NAACP and faith leaders' demonstration at Sesquintennial Park in downtown Graham, NC.
- 3. As soon as I arrived at the Park, I saw the American flag at the Historic Courthouse at half-staff, and realized it was probably for John Lewis. I then noticed that the flag appeared to be at the same level as the top of the Confederate monument.
- 4. This led me to think about how we in the Alamance Branch of the NAACP and other social justice activists in our community have begged and pleaded with City and County elected leaders about the need to remove the Confederate monument because of its symbolism of government-sanctioned white supremacy and racial oppression.
- 5. I thought about how the Alamance County Board of Commissioners' ('the Board") response at their July meeting had been to shut down public debate on this issue by limiting the public comment period to 30 minutes, knowing that members of the public wanted to talk about removing the monument. It is as if they have turned the Board into a White Citizens Council.

- 6. As I thought about these things while standing there with the demonstrators who were all peacefully gathered in the Sesquintennial Park, I said to myself: "I am not going to stand here on this corner that we've been relegated to. I am going to cross over to that monument and speak out against white supremacy."
- 7. Below is a Google aerial satellite view of the Court Square, with a red "X" marking where I was standing when I arrived, a yellow circle around Sesquintennial Park, and a red circle around the monument. Although vehicles travel around the Court Square rotary, and can park along the sidewalk surrounding the Courthouse, the crosswalk adjacent to the monument is not open to any vehicular traffic, nor is the area between the monument and the Courthouse

8. I got a Black Lives Matter sign from the pile of posters near our demonstration, crossed the street at Court Square from the park directly crossing to the monument mound, and stood on the cement border around the monument which is lined with flowers. I recall being very careful at all times to not stand in the roadway. There were no cars traveling in the path I took, and no traffic stopped because of my crossing. Here is a photo of me holding up my sign in front of the monument soon after I crossed:

9. As I stood on the concrete border, a white deputy spoke loudly to me from behind me near the Courthouse steps, "Sir, sir." Then a Black officer came over to me, stood to my left (as shown in the above photo), and said "You cannot stand here." I said, "I disagree." He said "the courthouse is closed," and I said, "I'm not trying to get into the courthouse." He said, "Well you cannot be on the property," and I said "this is county property, and I am a citizen of the county." He said "this property is closed, you can go over there [gesturing across the street to the city sidewalk beside the Sesquintennial Park]." I said, "I am not going over there, I have every right to be here." He said "You are standing in the middle of the street," and I said "I am not in the street, I am not obstructing traffic." He said, "If you don't move I'll have to detain you," and I said, "Brother, do what you have to

- do, I am not moving." He said, "Are you trying to get arrested?" and I said, "No I am trying to exercise my First Amendment rights to protest this monument."
- 10. Then he had a very brief discussion with the other deputies standing behind him about what to do with me. He then said, "Put your hands behind you," and put handcuffs on me. He did not tell me what I was being arrested for. He then loaded me into van that was parked on the west side of the square. I heard on his radio that he should wait on the circle because there were more arrests—2 males and a female.
- 11. Right before that point, I was wondering if I had made the right choice; I had not discussed getting arrested with my spouse or anyone else, because I had not planned to do it. But when I heard that three others had been arrested along with me, my heart lifted. Noah Read, one of the men arrested, is a member of the Board of Elections. We have been doing social justice work for 7-8 years together. He saw me get arrested, grabbed a sign and went to stand near the monument, so he was arrested too.
- 12. Rev. Walter Allison is a Black minister in his 60s who has a jail ministry too. Amy Harrison, the older white woman who was arrested is also a long-time social justice advocate. She saw us getting arrested and decided to join us.
- 13. All of us were unprepared for this event—we had not planned on being arrested. We sang We Shall Overcome—6 verses—in the Sheriff's van all the way to the jail.
- 14. I was at the demonstration a total of approximately 3 minutes from the time I arrived and the time I was taken to the jail.
- 15. Once in the jail, the deputies were going to take our masks, but not give us new ones. Ms. Harrison told them no, because none of the inmates up in the jail block have masks and she did not want to be exposed to COVID-19.
- 16. We were processed separately but within earshot of each other. The magistrate asked us questions, reading from some sort of form, about our monthly income, whether we had outstanding warrants, etc. She read from some sort of script when she told us, "if you don't work or live in Graham, you may not come back into Graham for 72 hours." The magistrate gave me some papers, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B. She told us we had to be back for court on August 20.

17. I live in Graham's Extraterritorial Jurisdiction, 3 blocks from the city boundary. I regularly run for exercise through Graham, and, as I have seen many other pedestrians do, I cross across the Court Square through the courthouse grounds to get to the other side of Elm and Main Streets. People regularly use the courthouse grounds and the sidewalk around it, for this purpose.

18. There has been no "civil unrest" or emergency conditions in Graham in recent months. During the time that I have been a member of the Alamance Branch of the NAACP, we have held multiple demonstrations on the Historic Courthouse steps, including the one photographed here from 2016, which concerned voting rights:

- 19. I lived and worked in Washington DC years ago. My apartment was three blocks from the National Mall. I am used to monuments being a part of pedestrian life—having lunch on the steps of the Lincoln memorial, for example.
- 20. I believe the Confederate monument in our town center in Graham should be removed because to me, as a Black man who pays County taxes and lives in Graham, it is racist government speech. I plan to go peacefully protest again at the monument in the next few days with a number of other people who oppose its presence in the Courthouse square.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on July 27, 2020.

DECLARATION OF WALTER CLINTON ALLISON, SR.

- 1. My name is Walter Clinton Allison, Sr., I am a resident of Alamance County, a member of the Alamance Branch of the NAACP (ANAACP), and an Associate Minister of First Baptist Church 508 Apple Street in Burlington, NC. I am over the age of eighteen and am competent to provide the information that follows based upon my personal knowledge.
- 2. On July 25, 2020, I participated in the ANAACP and faith leaders' demonstration at Sesquintennial Park in downtown Graham, NC. There were no counterdemonstrators present.
- 3. Around 9:00am that morning, as I stood on that corner by the Park, I saw the ANAACP President, Barrett Brown, cross the street to stand next to the Confederate monument. Then I saw Mr. Brown being arrested for standing there with his sign. I said to myself, "There is no reason for them to be arresting him." I am African American and experience that monument as government hate speech because it celebrates the Confederacy and enslavement of African Americans. To me, it says, "you will never be equal to Whites."
- 4. So I picked up a sign and, using the crosswalk at North Main and stopping no traffic, I crossed to stand beside the monument. This is a photo that fairly and accurately depicts me standing next to Noah Read, another ANAACP member, right before we both got arrested:

5. There were no counter-protestors anywhere that I could see near the north sides Courthouse square. It was just me and Mr. Read and the Sheriff deputies at that point, as the deputies had already taken Mr. Brown away. The Sheriff deputy said to me "Do you want to be arrested?" and I said "No, but I can stand here with my sign." He arrested me, and Mr. Read was arrested too. They never told us what we were being arrested for. Much later, at the jail, the magistrate gave me the paper attached hereto, which says I was "standing and loitering in the main traveled portion" of the street, which I was not doing and never did do.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on August 3, 2020.

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

The plaintiffs Alamance County Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Tamara O. Kersey, Colleen Tenae Turner, Terence Colin Dodd, Destiny Clarke, Annie Simpson, Nerissa Rivera, Adam Rose, and Gregory Drumwright, move pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65 and LR 65.1 for a preliminary injunction prohibiting the defendants from prohibiting protests on outdoor spaces around the Alamance County Historic Courthouse grounds. After review of the evidence and upon consideration of arguments of counsel, and as found in more detail in the opinion and order filed concomitantly herewith, the Court finds and concludes:

1. The plaintiffs are likely to be successful on their claims that the County

Defendants' total prohibition of protests on the steps of, sidewalks surrounding, and grounds of the Alamance County Historic Courthouse violates their First Amendment rights. The long-term total prohibition of protests on these traditional public forums is not a time, place and manner

- restriction of speech, nor is it narrowly tailored to protect legitimate governmental interests.
- 2. The plaintiffs regularly protest and currently plan to protest in the imminent future in the public spaces around the Square in Graham and want to protest in the traditional public forum where the County Defendants have prohibited protests. They are likely to suffer irreparable harm absent preliminary relief.
- 3. The equities favor a preliminary injunction.
- 4. A preliminary injunction restraining unconstitutional prohibitions on First Amendment rights serves the public interest.

Based on these findings and conclusions, and for reasons explained in more detail in an Order entered concomitantly herewith, it is ORDERED that:

- 1. The plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction, Doc. 47, is GRANTED to the extent stated herein.
- 2. The defendants Terry S. Johnson, in his official capacity as the Sheriff of Alamance County; Eddie Boswell, in his official capacity as Alamance County Commissioner; Steve Carter, in his official capacity as Alamance County Commissioner; Bill Lashley, in his official capacity as Alamance County Commissioner; Amy Scott Galey, in her official capacity as Alamance County Commissioner; Tim Sutton, in his official capacity as Alamance County Commissioner; and Bryan Hagood, in his official capacity as Alamance County Manager, and their officers, attorneys, agents, and employees and other persons who are in active concert or participation with them are hereby RESTRAINED AND ENJOINED from prohibiting all protests on the following spaces in and around the Alamance County Historic Courthouse in Graham, North Carolina:

- a. the steps on the north, east, south, and west sides of the Courthouse steps;
- b. the lawns between the sidewalks and the Courthouse;
- c. the sidewalk encircling the Courthouse and the shorter walkways connecting the steps on each side to that encircling sidewalk; and
- d. the area marked "reserved" between the Courthouse sidewalk and the Confederate monument, where cars do not drive or park.
- 3. Nothing in this Order prohibits the defendants from imposing reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions for use of Courthouse spaces. Nothing in this Order prohibits the defendants from temporarily restricting access to the outdoor Courthouse spaces set forth in Paragraph 2 during short-term emergency situations.
 - 4. In the Court's discretion, the bond requirement under Rule 65(c) is waived.
- 5. Upon receipt, the defendants Johnson and Hagood shall immediately provide Notice of this Injunction to their officers, attorneys, agents, employees, and other persons who are in active concert or participation with them.

This the 14th day of August, 2020, at 4:45 PM.
