NOTE:

1. This is an anticipation of the order in which cases will be called for trial and the anticipated month the case will be called for trial. Priority cases not reached may be continued to a later month.

2. The District Attorney's office will publish a trial calendar for each session. Other cases not included on this list will be added to the monthly trial calendar. Counsel are reminded to carefully examine the trial calendars when they are issued.

3. Attorneys should keep in mind their obligation under Rule 3.1 to notify the presiding judge as soon as any schedule conflicts develop so that the judges can coordinate a resolution of the conflict.

This the ____ day of _____, 2026.

Jason Smith
District Attorney

R. Kent Harrell
