

Sam Cone

J. Sam Cone is a financial consultant and lawyer in his hometown of Greensboro, North Carolina.

With Pinsker Wealth, Sam uses his education in law, tax, and mathematics to help his clients pursue lives that provide both stability and fulfillment through planning (financial/charitable/tax) and investment management. Sam believes firmly that a just society benefits all his clients, and he considers working toward that to be an essential part of his job.

Coming from a long line of philanthropists and community advocates, Sam also works closely with a range of organizations that advocate for human and civil rights throughout his community. Sam pushes for a more just North Carolina through his role as a board member and treasurer of both the NC Equal Access to Justice Commission and the NC Justice Center. He also helps oversee the investment of numerous dedicated philanthropic funds as a board member of the Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro, the Cone Health Foundation, the Greensboro Jewish Foundation, the UNCG Investment Fund, and the Greensboro Symphony Endowment.
