

THE NORTH CAROLINA DISPUTE RESOLUTION COMMISSION

H. David Niblock, Commissioner

H. David Niblock, was appointed to the N.C. Dispute Resolution by Chief Justice Paul Newby on April 18, 2022 – September 30, 2024, as a certified family financial mediator; reappointed by Chief Justice Paul Newby on October 1, 2024, for a term expiring on September 30, 2027.

David is a partner at Craige Jenkins Liipfert & Walker LLP located in Winston-Salem. He was admitted to the NC State Bar in 1981. His practice areas include Domestic Relations, Personal Injury, Civil Litigation, Estate Administration, Traffic Violations, Criminal Law, and Real Estate.

H. David Niblock's college education includes St. Andrews Presbyterian College, B.A., 1977, law school degree was from Campbell University School of Law, J.D., 1981. He is a dually NCDRC Certified Mediator, Superior Court Actions and Family Financial Cases.