

MYTHS VS REALITIES

Human Trafficking in North Carolina

MYTH: Only females are victims & survivors of trafficking

REALITY:

Trafficking happens to ALL genders

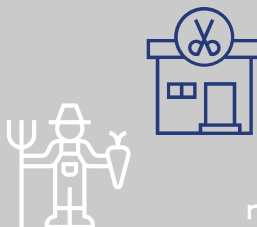

MYTH: Human trafficking always involves commercial sex

REALITY:

Sex & labor trafficking also occur in LEGAL BUSINESSES

such as agriculture, hotels, salons, retail, restaurants, & private homes.

MYTH: Trafficking always includes violence

REALITY:

Most traffickers actually use various means such as tricking, defrauding, manipulating, or threatening victims.

Many are lured through love, protection and money.

MYTH: Only undocumented foreign nationals get trafficked in the U.S.

REALITY:

Persons are trafficked regardless of their citizenship status and trafficking does not require the crossing of a border.

MYTH: Traffickers target victims they don't know

REALITY:

Victims are more often trafficked by people they know, who may be a partner, a spouse, or family members.

MYTH: All commercial sex is human trafficking

REALITY:

All commercial sex involving a minor, and commercial sex involving an adult through the use of force, fraud, or coercion is human trafficking.
