

Please join the North Carolina Human Trafficking Commission and North Carolina Coalition Against Human Trafficking
for a new online training series:

Strengths and Vulnerabilities: Lived Experience of Risk and Resilience

LGBTQ+ Community Vulnerabilities: Understanding & Advocacy

June 2, 2021

10:00-11:30 AM & 1:00-2:30 PM

This two-part training series will cover basic terminology, statistics, intersectionality and the increased vulnerability of the LGBTQ+ community to sex and labor trafficking due to discrimination. The afternoon session will focus on changing systems to create a more inclusive and safe society for the most marginalized individuals. Participants will leave with action steps and resources to be a more competent and affirming person for the LGBTQ+ people in their lives, both personally and professionally.

Registration

Part 1 at 10:00 AM: Zoom Registration

Part 2 at 1:00 PM: Zoom Registration

About the presenter: Kori Hennessey (they/them pronouns) is the Director of Education and Programs at the LGBT Center of Raleigh. They have been with the Center for over 4 years, recently finished the Nonprofit Management Program at Duke University, and is a certified trainer with the Transgender Training Institute. Kori is passionate about social justice, equity and creating inclusive and affirming spaces for all.

This project was supported by Grant No. 2018-V2-GX-0061 awarded by the Office for Victims of Crime, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this publication, program/exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office for Victims of Crime.