WEBINAR (LIVE) INTRODUCTORY OVERVIEW:

Intersection of Human Trafficking and Homelessness

August 17, 2021

Elizabeth Hunter, MS, BS

Emily da Camara, MSW

People experiencing homelessness are at an increased risk of human trafficking. Although systems are in place to serve homeless populations these often create barriers for potential victims to access services. Traffickers prey on the homeless population because of these vulnerabilities and access challenges. These elements create a perfect storm of conditions that put a victim in an unending cycle. This training will identify recruitment tactics, barriers to accessing help and strategies to create lower barrier access points for victims.

Objectives

- Identify Recruitment Tactics in homeless populations.
- Discuss barriers for accessing help.
- Explore strategies to create low barrier access points for victims.

WEBINAR (LIVE) INTRODUCTORY OVERVIEW:

Starting the Conversation around Labor Trafficking within Begging Crews

September 1, 2021

Rachel L. Parker, MAIS

Grace Sullivan

Tracy Zema, MSN, RN, SANE-A SANE-P

Begging Crews are prevalent in many cities and towns. They can be recognized by holding up signs and asking for donations. What if there's something more going on beneath the surface? Who would take advantage of them? How can this be an organized crime of human trafficking? What are the vulnerabilities being exploited? The Triad Labor Trafficking Task Force in North Carolina has been exploring this vulnerability. This webinar will discuss these questions and help to answer questions and raise awareness in communities. Tools to assist in identification will be highlighted.

Objectives

- Discuss the vulnerabilities of those exploited by begging crews.
- Explore ways to engage stakeholders in forming responses.
- Describe tools are needed to identify, respond, and serve survivors.

Series Two: Human Trafficking Identification in Healthcare

ZOOM SIGN-IN 9:50 am PROGRAM 10:00 – 11:30 am

Healthcare professionals and first responders are uniquely situated to proactively identify and serve victims and survivors of human trafficking, a majority of whom are believed to have contact with a medical provider at least once annually. This training will equip participants with the skills needed to identify and respond to possible indicators of human trafficking that present in health care settings. A trauma-informed and victim/survivor-centered approach will be presented as the basis of patient care, as well as the foundation for the development of organizational response protocols.

Series Objectives

- Outline the types of human trafficking, its prevalence, and the crucial role that healthcare providers play in identifying trafficked patients.
- Identify the indicators for human trafficking.
- Recognize the principles and importance of survivor-centered, trauma-informed care.
- Develop a trafficking response protocol for their organizations.
