New eWarrants Training Sessions Available for Law Enforcement Trainers

(ALERT: New seats now open for eWarrants training on Thursday, May 27, and Friday, May 28; email nca-r@nccourts.org to be included.)

With the deadline for transitioning to eWarrants quickly approaching, the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) has added new training sessions for law enforcement trainers, beginning on Tuesday, June 1, through Friday, June 11. For sessions June 1 – June 11, please register at the link below.

As a reminder, as part of North Carolina's eCourts initiative, the legacy NCAWARE application is being replaced statewide by a new solution: eWarrants. The target go-live date for eWarrants is June 21, 2021. It is imperative that law enforcement officers are trained and prepared to begin using eWarrants on that date, as NCAWARE will no longer be available.

REGISTRATION FOR eWARRANTS TRAINING

Law enforcement trainers who have not already done so should register now for one of the online training sessions being held between now and June 11, 2021. Each law enforcement agency will be limited to two "trainer" attendees. These virtual training sessions will be three hours long, with up to 15 participants to a class.

Law enforcement agencies should determine which trainers will attend eWarrants training and direct those selected to Registration for eWarrants Training to registered. Due to the limited number of seats per session, it is important for attendees to register early as all sessions will be reserved on a "first come, first served," basis.

Once the completed form is submitted, the registrant will receive an email confirming that he/she is registered for their selected training. Prior to the scheduled training, registrants will receive a Webex and necessary login information.
