Foreword

On 23 January 2020, the Supreme Court of North Carolina adopted the Rules of the Dispute Resolution Commission, superseding the existing set of rules in its entirety, see 373 N.C. 606.

Although the current rules borrow substantive content from their previous counterparts, they differ markedly as well, particularly in form and style. Accordingly, the history note after each rule in this codification dates back only to the Court's 23 January 2020 order. For a complete history of the rules, please consult the publication record that appears at the end of this codification.

Questions or feedback about this codification may be directed to rules@sc.nccourts.org.

Rule 6. Powers and Duties of the Commission

The Commission shall have the authority to undertake activities to expand public awareness of dispute resolution procedures, to foster growth of dispute resolution services in the state, and to ensure the availability of high-quality mediator training programs and competent and ethical mediators. Specifically, the Commission is authorized and directed to do the following:

(a) Review and approve or disapprove applications of: (i) persons seeking to have mediator training programs certified, (ii) attorneys and nonattorneys seeking certification as qualified mediators to conduct mediated settlement conferences and mediations in North Carolina's court-ordered mediation programs, and (iii) persons or mediator training programs seeking reinstatement.

(b) Review applications against criteria for certification set forth in rules adopted by the Supreme Court for mediated settlement conferences or mediation programs operating under the Commission's jurisdiction, and against any other requirements of the Commission which amplify and clarify those rules. The Commission may adopt application forms and require applicants to complete the forms for certification.

(c) Compile and maintain lists of certified mediator training programs along with the names of contact persons, addresses, and telephone numbers for each mediator training program, and make those lists available online or upon request.

(d) Institute periodic review of mediator training programs and trainer qualifications, and recertify mediator training programs that continue to meet criteria for certification. Mediator training programs that are not recertified shall be removed from the lists of certified mediator training programs.

(e) Compile, keep current, and make available to the courts and the public online lists of certified mediators which specify the judicial district(s) or counties in which each mediator wishes to practice.

(f) Prepare, keep current, and make available online biographical information submitted to the Commission by certified mediators in order to make such information accessible to court staff, lawyers, and the public.

(g) Make a reasonable effort on a continuing basis to ensure that the judiciary, clerks of court, court staff, attorneys, and to the extent feasible, parties to mediation, are aware of the Commission and its office and the Commission's duty to certify and regulate the conduct of mediators and mediator training programs.

(h) Regulate the conduct of mediators and mediator training programs, including (i) receiving and investigating complaints against mediators, mediator training program personnel, and mediator training programs; and (ii) imposing sanctions, if warranted under Rule 9.

373 N.C. 606.

Rule 7. Mediator Conduct

The conduct of all mediators certified by the Commission or serving programs under the jurisdiction of the Commission, and personnel affiliated with any certified mediator training program, must conform to the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators adopted by the Supreme Court and enforceable by the Commission and to the standards of any professional organization of which such person is a member that are not in conflict nor inconsistent with the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators. A certified mediator shall inform the Commission of any (i) criminal conviction, disbarment, or other revocation or suspension of a professional license; (ii) complaint filed against the mediator or disciplinary action imposed upon the mediator by a professional organization; or (iii) judicial sanction, civil judgment, tax lien, or filing for bankruptcy. Failure to do so is a violation of these rules. Violations of the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators or other professional standards, or conduct that reflects a lack of moral character or fitness to conduct mediations or which discredits the Commission, the courts, or the mediation process, may subject a mediator to disciplinary proceedings by the Commission.

Rule 8. The Standards and Advisory Opinions Committee

(a) Appointment of the Standards and Advisory Opinions Committee. The Commission's chair shall appoint a standing committee on standards and advisory opinions to address the matters listed in subsection (b) of this rule.

(b) Matters to Be Considered by the Standards and Advisory Opinions Committee. The Standards and Advisory Opinions Committee shall review and consider the following:

- (1) Proposals for amending the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators, the Commission's Advisory Opinion Policy, or the Commission's Advertising Policy.
 - (2) Requests from Commission staff for assistance in responding to inquiries from mediators and the public as to the interpretation of statutes, rules, the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators, advisory opinions, policies, or guidelines of the Commission.

 - (5) Matters that interface with the North Carolina State Bar or other professional regulatory body regarding inconsistencies and/or conflicts between these rules and/or policies and the rules and/or policies of those entities.
- (c) Initial Commission Staff Review.
- (1) Commission staff may respond in writing to requests for assistance from mediators and the public under subsection (b)(2) of this rule, or may respond orally if time is of the essence. Staff shall consult with the chair of the Standards and Advisory Opinions Committee as necessary to ensure correct and consistent responses. Written requests for formal advisory opinions shall be referred to the chair of the committee in compliance with the procedures established by the committee. The referral procedures shall ensure that the case file number, the names of parties, and other identifying information are redacted so that any decision cannot be influenced by the information.
 - (2) All requests for informal advice shall be logged by Commission staff, and the requesting party's confidentiality shall be maintained unless the requesting party indicates otherwise.
- (d) Review by the Standards and Advisory Opinions Committee.
- (1) If the chair of the Standards and Advisory Opinions Committee determines that a Commission advisory opinion is warranted under subsection (c) of this rule, then the matter shall be considered by the committee. If the committee concurs, then a proposed advisory opinion shall be drafted, approved by the committee, and submitted to the Commission for its consideration.

- (2) If the chair of the Standards and Advisory Opinions Committee determines that a formal Commission advisory opinion is not warranted under subsection (c) of this rule, then the requesting party shall be advised in writing and provided with informal advice, if requested.

Rule 9. The Grievance and Disciplinary Committee

(a) Appointment of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee. The Commission's chair shall appoint a standing committee entitled the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee to address the matters listed in subsection (b) of this rule.

(b) Matters to Be Considered by the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee. The Grievance and Disciplinary Committee shall review and consider, consistent with subsection (d)(2) of this rule, the following:

- (1) Matters that relate to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of those seeking a provisional pre-training approval, including a request to review a Commission staff determination not to issue a provisional pre-training approval on the basis of a requesting party's moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice.
- (2) Matters that relate to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of an applicant for mediator certification or certification renewal, including a request for review of a Commission staff decision to deny an application for mediator certification or certification renewal on the basis of the applicant's moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice.
- (3) Matters otherwise self-reported by a certified mediator or personnel affiliated with a certified mediator training program, or otherwise coming to the attention of the Commission that relate to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of a mediator under the Commission's jurisdiction or a person affiliated with a certified mediator training program.
- (4) Matters that relate to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of a trainer or other person affiliated with a certified mediator training program or a mediator training program that is an applicant for certification or certification renewal, including a request for review of a Commission staff decision to deny an application for mediator training program certification or certification renewal on the basis of the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of any trainer or other person affiliated with the program.

- (5) Complaints by a Commission member, Commission staff, a judge, an attorney, court staff, or any member of the public that relate to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of a mediator under the Commission's jurisdiction or a trainer or other person affiliated with a certified mediator training program.

(c) Initial Commission Staff Review and Determination.

- (1) Review of Requests for Provisional Pre-training Approvals. Commission staff shall review requests for the issuance of provisional pre-training approvals regarding matters that relate to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of a requesting party, and shall seek guidance from the chair of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee, as necessary. Staff may contact the requesting party, conduct background checks, and contact third parties or entities who may possess relevant information that relates to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of the requesting party. Based on its review, staff shall determine whether to issue or refrain from issuing a provisional pre-training approval. The requesting party may seek review of the staff decision from the chair of the committee. If, after review, the chair determines that the requesting party does not possess the requisite criteria for certification related to moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice established by program rules and Commission policies and guidelines, then the chair shall instruct staff not to issue a provisional pre-training approval. The staff decision, or that of the chair after review, to deny a request for a provisional pre-training approval shall be final and is not subject to appeal.
- (2) Review and Referral of Matters Relating to the Moral Character, Conduct, or Fitness to Practice of Applicants. Commission staff shall review information relating to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of an applicant seeking mediator certification or certification renewal, including matters which an applicant is required to report under program rules and information relating to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of personnel affiliated with mediator training programs seeking certification or certification renewal.

Staff may contact an applicant to discuss matters reported and may conduct a background check on an applicant. Any third party with knowledge of any information relating to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of an applicant may notify the Commission. Staff shall seek to verify any such third-party report and may disregard a report that cannot be verified. Staff may contact an agency where a complaint about an applicant has been filed or that has imposed discipline on an applicant and may contact a judge who has imposed discipline on an applicant.

All reported matters or other information gathered by staff that bears on the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of an applicant shall be forwarded directly to the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee for its review, except matters expressly exempted from review by the Commission's Policy for Reviewing Matters Relevant to Good Moral Character, Conduct, and Fitness to Practice. Matters that are exempted by the policy may be processed by staff, but will not act as a bar to certification or certification renewal.

The committee shall review any matter that relates to an applicant and is referred by staff under this policy, while not a complaint, in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsection (d) of this rule.

- (3) Commission Staff Review of Concerns Raised That Are Not Deemed to Constitute Complaints. Commission staff shall review information received or concerns raised that relates to a mediator's failure to meet his or her case management duties under applicable program rules, or relates to matters that are not deemed to constitute a complaint under this subsection or subsection (c)(4) of this rule.
- a. If the information received or the concern raised does not state a violation of rules or standards promulgated by the Supreme Court or local district rules, then the reporting party will be advised that the Commission will take no action in response to the report.
 - b. If it appears that the information received or the concern raised constitutes a violation of a rule, statute, or standard, but either is not serious enough to be treated as a complaint or the complaining party does not wish to file a complaint, Commission staff shall prepare a summary of the concern raised and submit the matter to the chair of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee and to the chair of the Commission.
 - c. Commission staff shall report the concerns to the mediator by letter or other manner of communication as approved by the chair of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee and chair of the Commission. Any written correspondence shall be copied to the chair of the committee and to the chair of the Commission.

Commission staff shall not disclose the identity of a reporting party who wishes to remain anonymous. If a reporting party wishes to remain anonymous, then staff shall not proceed under this section unless evidence of the mediator's failure to fulfill his or her case management duties has been provided or otherwise exists.

- (4) Commission Staff Review of Oral or Written Complaints. Commission staff shall review oral and written complaints received by the Commission regarding the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of a mediator under the jurisdiction of the Commission or any personnel affiliated with a certified mediator training program (respondents), except that staff shall not act on anonymous complaints unless staff can independently verify the allegations made.
- a. Oral Complaints. If, after reviewing an oral complaint, Commission staff determines it is necessary to contact a third party about the matter, including a witness identified by the complaining party or other third party identified by Commission staff during its review of the complaint, or to refer the matter to the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee, then Commission staff shall first make a summary of the complaint and forward it to the complaining party who shall be asked to sign the summary and a release and to return both to the Commission's office. A member of the Commission, a committee of the Commission, Commission staff, judges, other court officials, or court staff may initiate an oral, anonymous complaint. Commission staff shall not proceed under this subsection unless corroborative evidence of the allegation relating to the mediator's conduct has been provided to the Commission.
 - b. Written Complaints. Commission staff shall acknowledge all written complaints within thirty days from receipt. A written complaint may be made by letter, e-mail, or filed on the Commission's approved complaint form. If a written complaint is not made on the approved form, then staff shall require the complaining party to have his or her signature on the complaint notarized and execute a release authorizing staff to contact third parties in the course of staff's review of the complaint.

- c. Pursuit of Complaint by Commission Staff or by Grievance and Disciplinary Committee Member. If a complaining party refuses to sign a complaint summary prepared by Commission staff, refuses to sign a release, or otherwise seeks to withdraw a complaint after filing it with the Commission, staff or a Grievance and Disciplinary Committee member may pursue the complaint. In determining whether to pursue a complaint independently, staff or a committee member may consider why the complaining party is unwilling to pursue the matter further, whether the complaining party is willing to testify if a hearing becomes necessary, whether the complaining party has specifically asked to withdraw the complaint, whether the circumstances complained of may be independently verified without the complaining party's participation, whether there have been previous complaints filed regarding the respondent's conduct, and the seriousness of the allegations made in the complaint.
- d. Response to Complaint. If Commission staff asks a respondent to respond in writing to an oral or written complaint, then the respondent shall be sent a summary or a copy of the complaint and any supporting evidence provided by the complaining party by Certified Mail, return receipt requested. The respondent shall respond no later than thirty days from the date of the actual delivery to the respondent or the date of the last attempted delivery by the U.S. Postal Service. A copy of the summary or complaint shall also be sent to respondent through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail directed to the respondent at the last mailing address provided to the Commission by the respondent. Upon written request, the respondent may be afforded ten additional days to respond to the complaint.
- e. Materials Not Forwarded to Complaining Party. The respondent's response to the complaint and the summaries of comments of any witnesses or others contacted during the investigation shall not be forwarded to the complaining party, except as may be required by N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2(h).

- (5) Initial Determination on Oral and Written Complaints. In reviewing a complaint under subsection (c)(4) of this rule and any additional information gathered, including information supplied by the respondent or a witness or other third party contacted, Commission staff shall consider the conduct complained of by reference to subsection (d)(2) of this rule. Staff shall determine whether to:

- a. Recommend Dismissal. After review and upon concluding that the complaint does not allege facts sufficient to constitute a violation of a statute, rule, standard, or policy enforceable under the jurisdiction of the Commission, Commission staff shall make a recommendation to the chair of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee to dismiss the complaint. If the chair agrees with the recommendation, then the complaint shall be dismissed with notification to the complaining party, the respondent, and any witnesses or others contacted during the review process. The complaining party and the respondent shall be notified of the dismissal by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, and such service shall be deemed sufficient for purposes of these rules. A copy of the notice of dismissal shall also be sent to the complaining party and the respondent through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail directed to the respondent and complaining party at the last mailing address provided to the Commission.

Staff shall note for the file why a determination was made to dismiss a complaint and shall report on such dismissals to the committee. Dismissed complaints shall remain on file with the Commission. The committee may take dismissed complaints into consideration if additional complaints are later made against the same respondent.

A complaining party may file a written appeal of the dismissal of the complaint to the committee no later than thirty days from the date of the actual delivery of the notice of dismissal to the complaining party or of the date of the last attempted delivery by the U.S. Postal Service of the notice of dismissal.

- b. Refer to the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee. Following an initial Commission staff review of the complaint and any response submitted by the respondent, including contacting the respondent, witnesses, or other third parties as necessary, and upon a determination that the complaint (i) raises a concern about a possible violation of a statute, a program rule, the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators, or a Commission policy; or (ii) raises a significant question about a respondent's moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice, or if, after giving the complaint due consideration, the chair of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee disagrees with staff's recommendation to dismiss the complaint, staff shall refer the matter to the full committee for review.

No matter shall be referred to the committee until the respondent has been forwarded a copy or summary of the complaint and a copy of these rules. The respondent shall respond no later than thirty days from the date of the actual delivery of the letter transmitting the complaint or summary to the respondent or the last attempted delivery to the respondent by the U.S. Postal Service. A copy of the complaint or summary shall also be sent to the respondent through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail directed to the respondent at the last mailing address provided to the Commission by the respondent. Upon written request, the respondent may be afforded ten additional days to respond to the complaint.

The respondent's response shall be included in the materials forwarded to the committee. If a witness or other person was contacted, any written response or summary of a response shall also be included in the materials forwarded to the committee.

- (6) Filing Deadlines for Complaints. A complaint made under subsection (b) of this rule that relates to the conduct of a certified mediator during a mediation, from appointment or selection of the mediator through the conclusion of the mediation by settlement or impasse, shall be filed no later than one year from the conclusion of the mediation by settlement or impasse, except that a complaint that relates to the conduct of a certified district criminal court mediator during a mediation, from the beginning of the mediation through the conclusion of the last session of mediation, shall be filed no later than ninety days from the conclusion of the last mediation session. A complaint made under subsection (b) of this rule that relates to the conduct of a person affiliated with a certified mediator training program during a training program shall be filed no later than one year from the conclusion of the training program.
- (7) Confidentiality. Commission staff will create and maintain files for all matters considered under subsection (b) of this rule. All information in the files pertaining to applicants for certification, certification of a mediator training program, or certification renewal shall remain confidential in accordance with N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2(h). Information pertaining to complaints regarding the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of mediators or trainers or personnel affiliated with certified mediator training programs shall remain confidential until such time as the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee completes its preliminary investigation, finds probable cause under subsection (d)(2) of this rule and N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2(h), and the time within which the respondent may appeal the determination of probable cause has expired, or if the respondent files a timely appeal under subsection (e) of this rule, the information shall remain confidential until a hearing is held and a decision is reached by the Commission.

Staff shall reveal the names of applicants and respondents to the committee and the committee shall keep the names of applicants and respondents and other identifying information confidential, except as provided for in N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2(h) and subsection (d)(3) of this rule.

Notwithstanding the above, staff shall notify the executive director of the Mediation Network of North Carolina, and the executive director of the community mediation center that is sponsoring the application of an applicant seeking certification as a district criminal court mediator, of any matter regarding the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of the applicant.

Staff shall notify any mediation program or agency populating a list of mediators certified by the Commission, including, but not limited to, the Mediation Network of North Carolina, community mediation centers, the North Carolina Industrial Commission, and the federal trial courts in North Carolina, of any finding of probable cause under this subsection against a mediator arising out of a mediated settlement conference conducted under the auspices of such agency or program. When practicable, staff shall notify the agency or program of any public sanction imposed by the Commission under these rules against a certified mediator who also serves as a mediator for that agency or program.

Staff and members of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee may share information with other committee chairs or committees if needed and relevant to a review of any matter before such other committee.

The Commission may publish names, contact information, and biographical information for mediators, neutrals, and mediator training programs that have been certified or qualified.

(d) Grievance and Disciplinary Committee Review and Determination on Matters Referred by Commission Staff.

- (1) Grievance and Disciplinary Committee Review of Moral Character Issues and Complaints. The Grievance and Disciplinary Committee shall review matters brought before it by Commission staff under the provisions of subsection (c) of this rule and may contact any other persons or entities with knowledge of the matter for additional information. The chair may, in his or her discretion, appoint members of the committee to serve on a subcommittee to investigate a particular matter brought to the committee by staff. The chair of the committee, or his or her designee, may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of books, papers, materials, or other documentary evidence deemed necessary to the committee's investigation and review of the matter.
- (2) Grievance and Disciplinary Committee Deliberation. The Grievance and Disciplinary Committee shall deliberate to determine whether probable cause exists to believe that an applicant or respondent's conduct:

 - a. is a violation of the enabling legislation for a mediated settlement conference program under the jurisdiction of the Commission or a violation of N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2;
 - b. is a violation of the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators or any other standards of professional conduct that are not inconsistent with the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators and to which the respondent is subject;
 - c. is a violation of Supreme Court rules or any other rules for mediated settlement conferences or mediation programs;
 - d. is inconsistent with good moral character (See Rule 8(a)(4) of the Rules for Mediated Settlement Conferences and Other Settlement Procedures in Superior Court Civil Actions, Rule 8(a)(7) of the Rules for Settlement Procedures in District Court Family Financial Cases, Rule 7(a)(4) of the Rules of Mediation for Matters in District Criminal Court, and Rule 7 of these rules);

- e. reflects a lack of fitness to conduct mediated settlement conferences or mediations, or to serve in affiliation with a certified mediator training program (See Rule 7);
- f. serves to discredit the Commission, the courts, or the mediation process (See Rule 7); or
- g. is a violation of a Commission policy.

(3) Grievance and Disciplinary Committee Determination. Following deliberation, the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee shall determine whether to dismiss the matter, make a referral, or impose sanctions, as follows:

- a. To Dismiss. If a majority of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee members review an issue of, or a complaint about, moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice and find no probable cause to believe that the applicant or respondent's conduct is a violation of subsection (d)(2) of this rule, then the committee shall dismiss the matter and instruct Commission staff to:
 - 1. certify or recertify the applicant, if an application is pending, or notify the respondent by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, with a copy sent by First-Class Mail through the U.S. Postal Service, that no further action will be taken in the matter; or
 - 2. notify the complaining party and the respondent by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, that no further action will be taken and that the matter is dismissed. A copy of the notice of dismissal shall also be sent to the respondent and the complaining party through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail.
- b. To Refer. If, after reviewing an application for certification or certification renewal or a complaint, a majority of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee members eligible to vote determine that:
 - 1. any violation of a statute, a program rule, the Standards of Professional Conduct for Mediators, or a Commission policy was technical or relatively minor in nature, caused minimal harm to the complaining party, and did not discredit the program, courts, or Commission, then the committee may:

- i. dismiss the complaint with a letter to the complaining party and respondent by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, and a copy of the letter through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail directed to the complaining party and the respondent at the last mailing address provided to the Commission by the complaining party and the respondent, notifying them of the dismissal, citing the violation, and advising the respondent to avoid such conduct in the future; or
 - ii. refer the respondent to one or more members of the committee to discuss the matter and explore ways that the respondent may avoid similar complaints in the future.
 2. the respondent's conduct involves no violation, but raises best practices or professionalism concerns, then the committee may:
 - i. direct Commission staff to dismiss the complaint with a letter sent by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, and a copy through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail to the complaining party and the respondent directed to the complaining party or respondent at the last mailing address provided to the Commission by the complaining party or the respondent advising him or her of the committee's concerns and providing guidance;
 - ii. direct the respondent to meet with one or more members of the committee, who will informally discuss the committee's concerns and provide counsel; or
 - iii. refer the respondent to the Chief Justice's Commission on Professionalism for counseling and guidance.
 3. the applicant or respondent's conduct raises significant concerns about his or her fitness to practice, including concerns about mental instability, mental health, lack of mental acuity, possible dementia, or possible alcohol or substance abuse, then the committee may, in lieu of or in addition to imposing sanctions, refer the applicant or respondent to the North Carolina Lawyer Assistance Program for evaluation or, if the applicant or respondent is not an attorney, to a physician, other licensed mental health professional, or substance abuse counselor or organization.

In the event that an applicant or respondent is referred to one or more members of the committee for counsel, to the Lawyer Assistance Program, or to some other professional entity, and fails to cooperate regarding the referral or refuses to sign releases or provide any resulting evaluations to the committee, or should any resulting discussion or evaluation suggest that the applicant or respondent is not currently capable of serving as a mediator, trainer, or manager, the committee may make further determinations in the matter. Pending further review, the committee may also recommend summary suspension under subsection (d)(4) of this rule until such time as the committee has authorized the applicant or respondent to return to active mediation practice. The committee may condition a certification or certification renewal on the applicant or respondent's successful completion of the referral process. Any costs associated with a referral, e.g., costs of evaluation or treatment, shall be borne entirely by the applicant or respondent.

- c. To Impose Sanctions. Except as provided for in subsection (d)(3)(b)(1) of this rule, if a majority of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee members find probable cause under subsection (d)(2) of this rule, then the committee shall impose sanctions on the applicant or respondent under subsection (e)(13) of this rule.

Notification of any dismissal, referral, or sanction imposed under subsection (d)(3) of this rule shall be sent to respondent by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, and a copy sent through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail directed to the last mailing address provided to the Commission by the respondent, and such service shall be deemed sufficient for the purposes of these rules. All witnesses and any others contacted by

Commission staff or a committee member shall be notified, if feasible, of a dismissal of the complaint.

A complaining party shall have no right of appeal from a committee determination to dismiss a complaint under subsection (d)(3)(a) of this rule or from a committee determination to refer a mediator under subsection (d)(3)(b) of this rule.

A letter issued under subsection (d)(3)(a) or subsection (d)(3)(b) of this rule regarding conduct or referral shall not be considered sanctions under subsection (e)(13) of this rule. Rather, the letters are intended to be opportunities to address concerns and to help applicants and respondents perform more effectively as mediators. However, there may be instances that are more serious in nature where the committee may both make a referral under subsection (d)(3)(b) of this rule and impose sanctions under subsection (e)(13) of this rule.

- (4) Summary Suspension. If, after initiation of a complaint against a respondent certified by the Commission and during review by the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee, the committee determines and the chair of the Commission concurs that the conduct of the respondent raises a serious issue regarding the health, safety, or welfare of the mediator or the public, or may adversely affect the integrity of the courts, and that there is a necessity for prompt action, then the Commission, through its chair, may petition the court to restrain or enjoin the respondent's conduct, including suspending the mediator from active service as a mediator in North Carolina. The petition for injunctive relief shall be filed in the Superior Court, Wake County.
- (5) Right to Object and Negotiate. Within the thirty-day period set forth in subsection (d)(6) of this rule, an applicant or respondent may contact the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee and object to any referral made or sanction imposed on the applicant or respondent, including objecting to any public posting of a sanction, and seek to negotiate some other outcome with the committee. The committee shall have the authority and discretion to engage or decline to engage in negotiations with the applicant or respondent. During the negotiation period, the applicant or respondent may request an extension of the time in which to request an appeal in writing under this subsection and subsection (d)(6) of this rule. Commission staff, in consultation with the committee chair, may extend the appeal period up to an additional thirty days in order to allow more time to complete negotiations.

- (6) Right of Appeal. If a referral is made or sanctions are imposed, then the applicant or respondent may file an appeal with the Commission in writing no later than thirty days from the date of the actual delivery of the notice to the applicant or respondent, or within thirty days from the last attempted delivery by the U.S. Postal Service. Subject to the provisions of subsection (d)(5) of this rule, if no appeal is received within thirty days as set out herein, then the applicant or respondent shall be deemed to have accepted the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee's findings and the imposition of sanctions. The complaining party does not have a right to appeal from a decision of the committee to dismiss the complaining party's complaint against the respondent.
 - (7) Notification. At such time as the matter becomes public under subsection (c)(7) of this rule and N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2(h), Commission staff shall, if feasible, notify the complaining party and any witnesses or others contacted during the investigation of the complaint by staff or the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee of the sanctions imposed and the fact of the respondent's appeal, if filed.
- (e) Appeal to the Commission.
- (1) Stay Pending Appeal. The imposition of a private or public sanction by the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee shall be stayed, pending the final disposition of an appeal properly filed by the respondent with the Commission.
 - (2) The Commission Shall Meet to Consider Appeals. In the discretion of the Commission's chair, an appeal by the respondent to the Commission of the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee's determination under subsection (d)(6) of this rule shall be heard either by (i) a five-member panel of Commission members chosen by the chair or the chair's designee, or (ii) the members of the full Commission. Any members of the committee who participated in issuing the committee's determination shall be recused and shall not participate in the hearing. Under Rule 3(c), members of the Commission shall recuse themselves from hearing the matter when they cannot act impartially. No matter shall be heard and decided by less than three Commission members.
 - (3) Conduct of the Hearing.
 - a. At least thirty days prior to the hearing before the Commission or panel, Commission staff shall forward to all parties, special counsel to the Commission, and members of the Commission or panel who will hear the matter, a copy of all documents considered by the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee and the names of the members of the Commission or panel who will hear the matter. Any written challenge questioning the neutrality of a member of the Commission or panel shall be directed to and decided by the Commission's chair or the chair's designee. A written challenge shall be filed with the Commission no later than seven days from the date the person filing the challenge received notice of the members who will hear the appeal.

- b. Hearings conducted by the Commission or a panel under this rule shall be de novo.
- c. Applicants, complainants, respondents, and any witnesses or others identified as having relevant information about the matter may appear at the hearing with or without counsel.
- d. An appeal from a denial of an initial application for certification or qualification of a mediator, neutral, or mediator training program that relates to moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice shall be held in private unless the applicant requests a public hearing. An appeal from a denial of an application for certification renewal or reinstatement that relate to ethics or conduct shall be open to the public except that, for good cause shown, the presiding officer may exclude from the hearing room all persons except the parties, counsel, and those engaged in the hearing.
- e. In the event that the applicant, complaining party, or respondent fails to appear without good cause, the Commission or panel shall proceed to hear from the parties and witnesses who are present and make a determination based on the evidence presented at the proceeding.
- f. Proceedings before the Commission or panel shall be conducted informally, but with decorum.
- g. The Commission or panel, through its counsel, and the applicant or respondent, may present evidence in the form of sworn testimony and/or written documents and may cross-examine any witness called to testify by the other. Commission or panel members may question any witness called to testify at the hearing. The Rules of Evidence shall not apply, except as to privilege, but shall be considered as a guide toward a full and fair development of the facts. The Commission or panel shall consider all evidence presented and give the evidence appropriate weight and effect.

- h. If, in the discretion of the Commission's chair, a panel is empaneled to hear the appeal, then the Commission's chair or designee shall appoint one of the members of the panel to serve as the presiding officer at the hearing before the panel. The Commission's chair or designee shall serve as the presiding officer at a hearing before the full Commission. The presiding officer shall have such jurisdiction and powers as are necessary to conduct a proper and efficient hearing and disposition of the matter on appeal. The presiding officer may administer oaths and may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, or other documentary evidence.
- i. Nothing herein shall restrict the chair of the Commission from serving on a panel or serving as its presiding officer at any hearing held under the provisions of subsection (e) of this rule.

- (4) Date of the Hearing. An appeal of any sanction imposed by the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee shall be heard by the Commission no later than 180 days from the date the notice of appeal is filed with the Commission, unless waived in writing by the respondent.
- (5) Notice of the Hearing. The Commission's office shall serve on all parties by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing no later than sixty days prior to the hearing, and such service shall be deemed sufficient for the purposes of these rules. A copy of the hearing notice shall also be sent through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail directed to the respondent at the last mailing address provided to the Commission by the respondent.
- (6) Ex Parte Communications. With the exception of Commission staff, no person shall have any ex parte communication with a member of the Commission concerning the subject matter of the appeal. Communications regarding scheduling matters shall be directed to staff.
- (7) Attendance. The presiding officer may, in his or her discretion, permit an attorney to represent a party by telephone or through video conference or allow witnesses to testify by telephone or through video conference, with such limitations and conditions as are just and reasonable. If an attorney or witness wishes to appear by telephone or video conference, then the requesting party shall notify Commission staff at least twenty days prior to the proceeding. At least five days prior to the proceeding, staff must be provided with the contact information of those who will participate by telephone or video conference.

- (8) Witnesses. The presiding officer shall exercise discretion with respect to the attendance and number of witnesses who appear voluntarily or involuntarily, for the purpose of ensuring the orderly conduct of the proceeding. Each party shall forward to the Commission's office and to all other parties at least ten days prior to the hearing the names of all witnesses who will be called to testify.

The only official record of the proceeding shall be the one made by the court reporter retained by the Commission. Copies of a tape, noncertified transcript, or record made by a court reporter retained by a respondent are not part of the official record.
- (11) Commission Deliberation. The members of the Commission or panel shall deliberate to determine whether clear, cogent, and convincing evidence exists to believe that an applicant or respondent's conduct is a violation of any of the provisions set out in subsection (d)(2) of this rule.
- (12) Commission Decision. After the hearing, a majority of the Commission members hearing the appeal or the panel may find that:
- a. there is not clear, cogent, and convincing evidence to support a referral or the imposition of sanctions and, therefore, dismiss the complaint or direct Commission staff to certify the applicant or recertify the mediator or mediator training program; or

- b. there is clear and convincing evidence that grounds exist to refer or to impose sanctions. The Commission or panel may impose the same or different sanctions than those imposed by the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee or make the same or a different referral.

The Commission or panel shall set forth its findings of fact, conclusions of law, order of referral and/or imposition of sanctions, or other action in writing and serve its decision on the respondent within sixty days from the date the hearing is concluded. A copy of the decision shall be sent by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, and such service shall be deemed sufficient for purposes of these rules. A copy of the decision shall also be sent through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail directed to the respondent at the last mailing address provided to the Commission by the respondent.

A decision of the Commission or panel shall be, subject to subsection (e)(15) of this rule, the final decision of the Commission.

Rule 10. The Mediator Certification and Training Committee

(a) Appointment of the Mediator Certification and Training Committee. The Commission's chair shall appoint a standing committee entitled the Mediator Certification and Training Committee to review the matters set forth in subsection (b) of this rule.

(b) Matters to Be Considered by the Mediator Certification and Training Committee. The Mediator Certification and Training Committee shall review and consider matters arising under this subsection.

- (1) Commission staff may raise with the Mediator Certification and Training Committee's chair matters relating to the issuance of provisional pre-training approvals and that pertain to an applicant's education, work experience, training, or any other requirement for mediator certification unrelated to moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice, including a request that the chair review a staff determination not to issue a provisional pre-training approval.
- (2) Commission staff may raise with the Mediator Certification and Training Committee's chair or the full committee matters that relate to the education, work experience, training, or other qualifications of an applicant for mediator certification unrelated to moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice. Appeals of staff determinations to deny an application based on a deficiency in the applicant's education, work experience, and/or training, or his or her failure to meet other requirements for certification unrelated to moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice, shall be brought before the full committee.
- (3) Commission staff may raise with the Mediator Certification and Training Committee's chair or the full committee matters that pertain to applications for mediator training program certification or certification renewal that are unrelated to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of training program personnel. Appeals of staff decisions to deny an application for mediator training program certification or certification renewal shall be brought before the full committee.

(c) Commission Staff Review of Qualifications.

- (1) Review of Provisional Pre-training Approvals. Commission staff shall review requests for the issuance of provisional pre-training approvals, seeking guidance from the Mediator Certification and Training Committee chair, as necessary, and shall issue approvals in instances where the person seeking the approval appears to meet all education, work experience, and other requirements established for mediator certification by program rules and Commission policies, except that any matters relating to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of the person requesting the approval shall be put before the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee or its chair under Rule 9. Staff may contact those requesting approvals, any third party or entity with relevant information about the requesting person, and may consider any other information acquired during the review process that bears on the requesting person's qualifications. If, after review, the chair determines that the person requesting the provisional pre-training approval does not meet the requisite criteria for certification established by program rules and Commission policies, then the chair shall instruct staff not to issue the pre-training approval. That determination shall be final and is not subject to appeal by the person requesting the provisional pre-training approval.
- (2) Review of Information Obtained During the Mediator Certification Process. Commission staff shall review all applications for mediator certification to determine whether the applicant meets the qualifications for certification unrelated to moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice set forth in program rules adopted by the Supreme Court for mediated settlement conferences or mediation programs under the jurisdiction of the Commission and any policies adopted by the Commission for the purpose of implementing those rules. Staff may contact an applicant to request additional information, may contact third parties or entities with relevant information about the applicant, and may consider any other information acquired during the review process that bears on the applicant's eligibility for certification.
- (3) Review of Mediator Training Program Certification Applications and Certification Renewal Applications. Commission staff shall review all mediator training program applications for certification and certification renewal, including reviewing mediator training program agendas, handouts, role plays, and trainer qualifications, to ensure compliance with program rules and Commission policies relating to mediator training programs, except that any matters relating to the moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice of training program personnel shall be put before the Grievance and Disciplinary Committee or its chair under Rule 9. Staff may seek clarification and additional information from training program personnel and training program registrants and attendees, as necessary.

(d) Mediator Certification and Training Committee Review.

(1) Duty to Review. The Mediator Certification and Training Committee shall review all matters brought before it by Commission staff under the provisions of subsections (b)(2) and (b)(3) of this rule. The chair may, in his or her discretion, appoint members of the committee to serve on a subcommittee to review a particular matter brought to the committee by staff. The chair or his or her designee may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of books, papers, materials, or other documentary evidence deemed necessary to any such review. The chair or designee may contact the following persons and entities for information concerning an applicant for mediator certification, mediator training program certification, or mediator training program certification renewal:

- a. All references, employers, colleges, professional licensing or certification bodies, and other individuals or entities cited in applications and any additional persons or entities identified by Commission staff during the course of its review as having relevant information about the qualifications of an applicant for mediator certification, mediator training program certification, or mediator training program certification renewal.
- b. Personnel affiliated with an applicant for mediator training program certification or mediator training program certification renewal, and those who registered for or have completed the training program.

All information in Commission files pertaining to requests for provisional pre-training approvals, initial certification applications of a mediator or mediator training program, or renewals of such certifications shall be confidential, except as provided in N.C.G.S. § 7A-38.2(h) or these rules.

(2) Probable Cause Determination. The members of the Mediator Certification and Training Committee who are eligible to vote shall deliberate to determine whether probable cause exists to believe that an applicant for mediator certification, mediator training program certification, or mediator training program certification renewal:

- a. does not meet the qualifications for mediator certification unrelated to moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice as set forth in program rules adopted by the Supreme Court for mediated settlement conferences or mediation programs under the jurisdiction of the Commission or the policies adopted by the Commission for the purpose of implementing those rules; or
- b. does not meet the requirements for mediator training program certification or mediator training program certification renewal unrelated to moral character, conduct, or fitness to practice as set forth in program rules adopted by the Supreme Court for mediated settlement conferences or mediation programs under the jurisdiction of the Commission or the policies adopted by the Commission for the purpose of implementing those rules.

If probable cause is found, then the application shall be denied.

(3) Authority of Mediator Certification and Training Committee to Deny an Application for Certification or Mediator Training Program Certification Renewal.

- a. If a majority of the Mediator Certification and Training Committee members who are reviewing a matter and eligible to vote find no probable cause under subsection (d)(2) of this rule, then Commission staff shall be instructed to certify the applicant for mediator certification or to certify or recertify the mediator training program.
- b. If a majority of the Mediator Certification and Training Committee members reviewing a matter and eligible to vote finds probable cause under subsection (d)(2) of this rule, then the committee shall deny the application for mediator certification or mediator training program certification or mediator training program certification renewal. The committee's determination to deny the application shall be in writing, shall set forth the deficiencies the committee found in the application, and shall be forwarded to the applicant. Notification of the determination shall be by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, and such service shall be deemed sufficient for purposes of these rules. A copy of the notice shall also be sent to the applicant through the U.S. Postal Service by First-Class Mail.

- c. - h. If the applicant has established that the conditions set forth in subsection (e)(13)(g) of this rule have been met by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, and is entitled to have the application approved, then the Commission shall certify the applicant.
- i. The Commission or panel shall set forth its decision to certify the applicant or to deny certification in writing, making findings of fact and conclusions of law. The decision shall be sent by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, within sixty days from the date of the hearing.
