

WAKE COUNTY COURTS OPERATIONS DURING COVID-19 RESTRICTIONS

EFFECTIVE MARCH 13 – APRIL 17, 2020*

Consistent with the directives of the Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court, effective Monday, March 16, superior court and district court proceedings in Wake County will be continued for at least 30 days, with limited exceptions. See below for detailed information.

Please use email and telephone to communicate with court staff and do not visit court offices for in-person assistance, unless you are required to appear in-person. Contact information may be found on www.nccourts.gov or by emailing WakeCourtHotline@nccourts.org.

Online court services are available for handling some court business, including paying your ticket, court payments, citation services (submitting certificates of insurance coverage), signing up for court date notifications and reminders, and more. Visit www.nccourts.gov/services.
