

NOVEMBER 19
NORTH CAROLINA STATE CAPITOL

5:00 P.M.
ONE EAST EDENTON ST., RALEIGH

NORTH CAROLINA SUPREME COURT HISTORICAL SOCIETY PRESENTS

150TH ANNIVERSARY OF NORTH CAROLINA'S 1868 CONSTITUTION

Discussion with Senior Associate Justice Paul Newby and Professor John V. Orth about how this important document was framed in accordance with the Reconstruction Acts after North Carolina was readmitted into the Union.

GUEST SPEAKER

PAUL M. NEWBY
Senior Associate Justice
Supreme Court of North Carolina

GUEST SPEAKER

JOHN V. ORTH
Professor of Law
University of North Carolina
School of Law

A LIVE PRESENTATION SHARING THE LEGACY
OF THE 1868 NORTH CAROLINA CONSTITUTION
AND ITS HISTORICAL IMPACT

Constitutional Tales

Ann McColl, an attorney practicing in the field of education law since 1991, created Constitutional Tales, a live, full production presentation that uses actors to recreate debates and other important events about the 1868 Constitution of North Carolina. Constitutional Tales is a multi-media presentation adapted to the interests of judges, lawyers, historians, educators, students, advocates, legislators, and policy-makers.

5:00 P.M. PRESENTATION IS FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

FOLLOW US DURING THIS SPECIAL PRESENTATION

NCcourts

@NCcourts

NC Courts

C E L E B R A T E . N C C O U R T S . O R G